the Jambalaya 1958

The Jambalaya staff is proud to present to you the 1958 JAMBALAYA. In the following three hundred pages we hope that you will find pictures and reminders of all your daily activities during this year at Tulane.

The theme of this JAMBALAYA is TULANE REVISITED. Each of us is now able to remember what has happened to us during this school term to make it unique from all the others, but as time goes by, these four years will become only a blur of emotions and experiences, all crowding together into one period—"college." Through pictures of events and activities that have occurred during this your Freshman year, or perhaps your Junior year, we hope to give you a permanent record of one particular and special phase of college life.

We have selected pictures of the routine, annual things that are a part of every school year—coffee breaks, classes, but our chief interest has been in recapturing this year's particular activities—the construction on the campus, Tulanians in the snow, that special party—all the things that individualize 1958. Whichever of your college years this may be, we hope that this JAMBALAYA will help you to remember it.

As you look through the JAMBALAYA, now and in the future, we hope that it will mean to you TULANE REVISITED.

Dedication

Yearbook dedications are a relative thing. The Jamb staff feels that its dedication should go to one who through the years has shown his overwhelming interest in Tulane students and their affairs.

In 1958, the Jambalaya staff has chosen Einar Pedersen as their "man of the year." Mr. Pete, as coordinator of spirit and student affairs, shows this vital interest. As ever, he has advised Lagniappes, APO, Tusk, Greenbackers, and Campus Nite. He is always present at all our dances and pep rallies, entering with the rest of the Greenies in Greenie life.

It is this devotion to the student and his affairs for which we salute Mr. Pete. It is for this work, helping our various student activities, for which we honor Mr. Pete. It is for this interest in Tulane and its member family that the Jambalaya staff dedicates its 1958 edition to Mr. Einar Pedersen, Assistant to the Dean of Students.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I congratulate the 1958 JAMBALAYA staff on the care and imagination demonstrated in the production of this fine volume. Both photographs and comments will reflect the diversified student life of the campus. The school year 1957-58 has brought with it new vigor and exciting prospects for the future. The rehabilitation program embarked upon in the summer of 1957 will bring all campus buildings in accord with modern standards for such facilities, including air-conditioning. New construction and sites being prepared for new construction are to be seen from one end of the campus to the other. By the time another JAMBALAYA goes to press, at least five new buildings will be ready for use. With a new University Center Building, the Favrot Intramural Sports Building, a Newcomb Food Service Building, a new infirmary, and new residence halls for both men and women, the University will have most of the tools necessary to mold a greater campus unity for a greater Tulane.

BOARD OF ADMINISTRATORS

The Board of Administrators of the Tulane Educational Fund is the general governing body of Tulane University. It is a self-sustaining board of seventeen members whose membership is made up of prominent Louisiana citizens and Tulane alumni. The original membership was named by Paul Tulane to receive and administer his gifts. The Board of Administrators establishes the broad educational policy of the University. It maintains a constant watch over the field of education and related fields in order that Tulane may continue to set the pace in higher learning, research, and educational service. In addition to the seventeen members, the Board consists of three ex-officio members, the Governor of Louisiana, the Mayor of New Orleans, and the State Superintendent of Education. Miss Florence Dymond of New Orleans is an emeritus member of the Board and Lawrence A. Wogan is secretary-treasurer emeritus. Mr. A. P. Genereux is serving as secretary-treasurer of the Board.

The day-to-day administration of University affairs is directed by a competent group of Officers of Administration—Vice-presidents, Deans, Directors and other administrative and staff members—who are in charge of the University's various departments and divisions. Each is a specialist in a field related directly to education. As leaders in their respective divisions, the officers are in a position to meet the students and the general public. All students will be counselled, advised, informed and serviced by these Officers during their stay at Tulane. The University is proud of these men and women for the essential part they play in the conduct of University affairs and for their dedicated work.

DIVISION OF STUDENT LIFE

At Tulane extra-curricular activities are a basic part of the University's broad educational program. We believe that the aim of higher education should be to produce, not only well-informed individuals, but also well-rounded minds. The Division of Student Life with offices in the Student Center, is dedicated to helping the individual student get into the swing of campus activities and learning to live and work with his fellow students. The Dean of Students and his staff are accessible to students at all times to assist them with their personal and other non-academic problems. The University feels that an active role in campus life is excellent preparation for the greater responsibilities of the post-graduate community.

College is a development that manifests itself in a fertility and flexibility of mind that cannot be duplicated at any other time in life. Since the early days of the University of Bologna, students have almost instinctively strived to have their voices heard. At many schools their voices have been heard, and they play a large part in the conduct of University affairs.

This is the case of Tulane. Not only does the Student Council actively and energetically work toward fulfilling the basic needs of the student community, but it now has representation on every important committee of the university whose purpose is in any way connected with student life. This is a result of a realization on the part of university officials that college is not only a training in the scholastic disciplines, but is also a development of future leaders who will be capable of assuming positions of responsibility in society.

Some projects undertaken by the Student Council this year are: a complete change in the Freshman Orientation Program, aiding in the recruiting of football players, establishment of a statewide Student Legislative Assembly, mailing of the identification cards instead of having students pick them up personally, the inviting to Tulane and the sponsorship of a Hungarian refugee student, the establishment of a unified honor system, enforcement of scholastic requirements on student officers, coordination and cooperation among the spirit groups, election of student officers for University College, orientation for foreign students, and standing committees to improve the functioning of the cafeteria and bookstore.

Collateral areas in which students are represented on university committees include: University Committee on Traffic Control, Homecoming Committee, University Committee on the new Student Union, Senate Committee on Student Affairs, Committee on Publications and the Parents' Day Committee.

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

The largest full-time division of the University and the oldest undergraduate division, this College is dedicated to the purpose of assuring each of its students the opportunity of obtaining a sound general education as well as a proper basis for specialization. Many students will prepare themselves for entrance into graduate and professional schools; others will terminate their formal education with the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree and obtain further preparation for their occupation after beginning to earn their living. The College offers both groups of students preparation for positions of leadership and trust in their communities. In addition it provides general-education courses for students in the other undergraduate divisions of the University and faculty members from the Graduate School and University College.

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

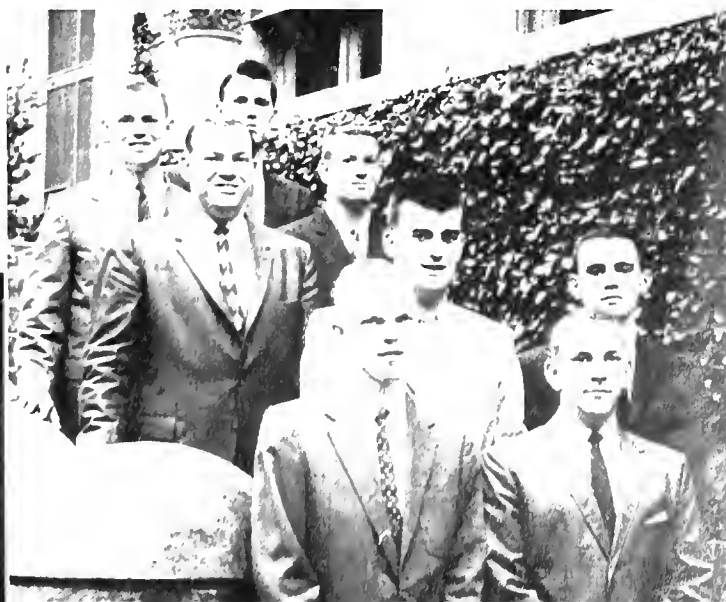

The School of Business Administration offers an undergraduate program of study leading to the BBA degree and a graduate program leading to the MBA degree. Also, under its auspices several institutes and short courses are conducted annually. The School of Business Administration is among the oldest in the country and is one of 14 charter members of the American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business.

The School of Business Administration is very proud of its honor system. Administered largely by the student Honor Board, the system has functioned effectively for many years. Its work in teaching honor, self-reliance and responsibility has been an invaluable part of the total education of the student.

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING

Engineering has had a tremendous impact upon our civilization in the past fifty years. Engineers have done wonders in harnessing the energy and transforming the materials of nature. Since 1894 the School of Engineering at Tulane has contributed its share of distinguished engineers to the profession. The School offers programs of study in chemical engineering, civil engineering, electrical engineering and mechanical engineering which emphasize the engineering sciences and their broad application to the basic problems which confront the professional engineer.

SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE

Within the past decade the practice of Architecture has undergone a major change in character and scope. An increasing awareness of the necessity for planning for the rapid expansion of populations rural and urban, particularly critical in the South, has made apparent an acute shortage of trained Architects for this field. Science and invention have opened new worlds of materials and methods which have all but overwhelmed us with new possibilities.

It is the aim and proper function of the School of Architecture to keep abreast of modern technology, to know and understand the coming problems of a world on the verge of over-population, and to educate men of broad vision and technical competence to take the leadership in the coming and inevitable crisis in human environment.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

University College is the evening and adult education division of Tulane University. Established in 1942, University College has steadily expanded its curricula and now enjoys full status as an undergraduate degree-granting college of the University. It offers degrees in the fields of liberal arts, commerce, medical technology, and nursing along with introductory courses in the fields of engineering and architecture. The faculty is primarily selected from the University's regular teaching staffs and is supplemented with special lecturers who are recognized authorities in their fields.

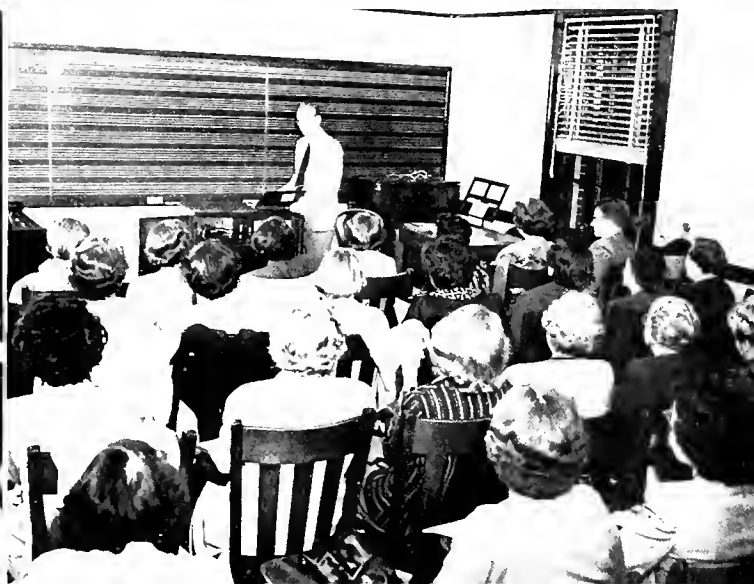

To broaden its scope and to provide effective leadership for its student body the council organized eleven committees from which a Representatives Council was formed, along with a third representative body composed of one member from each class in University College.

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

Graduate preparation for those who expect to make social work their profession has been available at Tulane since 1921. The two-year curriculum leading to the Master's degree was organized in 1927 when the Rockefeller Foundation made a grant to the University for the purpose of extending the program. The school is accredited by national functional agencies including group work, medical and psychiatric social work, and school social work. Preparation for child welfare, family casework, and social welfare planning are also offered.

Social Work students are registered in course work and at the same time are assigned two or two and a half days a week to various social agencies for supervised field work. Therefore, they are closely associated with the various social agencies and institutions of the local welfare organization.

DEAN ROBERT M. LUMIANSKY
Graduate School

GRADUATE SCHOOL

Graduate work was first provided at Tulane in 1883-1884. Under several different names and forms of administration, graduate work has continued to develop. Four students received degrees of Master of Arts in 1885; the first Doctor of Philosophy degree was conferred in 1887. In 1925 the name was changed from the Faculty of Graduate Studies to the Graduate School.

Ph.D. degrees are offered in the following subjects: anatomy, anthropology, biochemistry, chemistry, economics, English, French, history, mathematics, microbiology, parasitology, pharmacology, philosophy, physiology, political science, psychology, sociology, Spanish, and zoology.

Degrees of Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Master of Fine Arts are offered by various departments in the arts and sciences, in engineering, and in the basic medical sciences.

SCHOOL OF LAW

The School of Law was established in 1847. It is a member of the Association of American Law Schools and is on the approved list of the American Bar Association. The School occupies all of Tilton Hall, which is located on the campus just off the St. Charles Avenue Circle. There are approximately 250 students in the School. This permits the close relationship between faculty and students which is essential to the School's philosophy of legal education.

The School offers two curricula: one in Civil Law and one in Common Law. Each leads to the degree of Bachelor of Laws. On the graduate level the degree of Master of Civil Law is awarded for satisfactory work in Civil Law and the degree of Master of Laws for satisfactory work in Common Law.

DEAN MAXWELL E. LAPHAM
School of Medicine

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Tulane School of Medicine was established in 1834 to train physicians to combat the diseases peculiar to the area. Over the years it has grown into an institution which not only teaches medical students but carried on extensive medical research and extends medical services to many other institutions in the community.

Considerable emphasis is now being placed upon research and it will no doubt become as important as training of the medical student. The two go hand in hand. The medical teacher who is doing research cannot fail to impress his students with the importance of research to the medical practitioner.

Medical school services to hospitals and health agencies imbue the student with a sense of service. The teaching of comprehensive medicine and rehabilitation stress the health of the whole patient, not merely the treatment of his diseases. Tulane medical graduates therefore enter upon their careers having had a high ideal communicated to them as part of their education.

DEAN JOHN R. HUBBARD
Newcomb College

Newcomb College was the first co-ordinate college for women established in the United States. As such it enjoys its own buildings and campus, its distinct traditions and history, and its own faculty. Newcomb girls to a very real degree govern their activities through their own agencies such as the Student Government Association, the Honor Board, and the Resident Government Association. Thus is the congenial atmosphere of the small liberal arts college preserved.

Yet at Newcomb there is no academic, cultural, or social isolation. As an integral component of a major university system, Newcomb offers its students the manifold benefits attendant to Tulane. In terms of library resources, the great variety of course offerings, and the caliber of instruction assured by the presence of a Graduate School of recognized excellence, Newcomb is indeed rich in its ability to offer a truly liberal education.

SUMMER SCHOOL

The Summer School conducts a twelve-week session in which courses are offered from the curricula of the College of Arts and Sciences, Newcomb, University College, Business Administration, Engineering and the Graduate School. The credits earned in the Summer School may be applied in those Colleges, as well as in colleges of other universities offering similar programs.

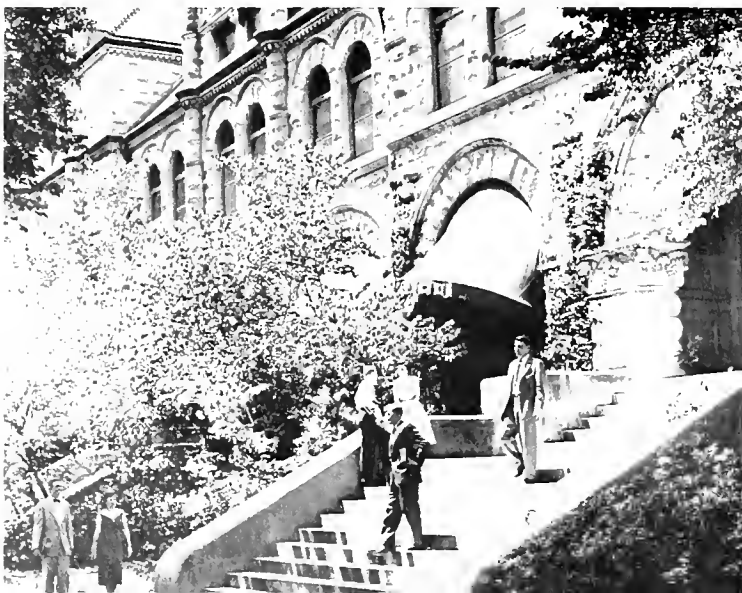

The session is divided into two six-week terms, except for evening courses. A student may enroll in either term, or in both. Classes meet five times a week for periods of one and a half hours, except in the laboratory sciences. Thus a semester's credit in a subject may be earned in a six-week term. The evening courses are conducted on the basis of a single longer term.

Degrees are conferred at the close of the Summer School.

The Tulane Alumni Association was organized in 1898 and is devoted to the broad principles of service to Tulane University. Since then Tulane alumni have taken an active part in the progress of one of the South's oldest and greatest educational institutions. Through the Alumni Association the University maintains contacts with graduates and former students. The TULANIAN, alumni magazine, is sent free of charge to all alumni.

Active Tulane alumni clubs exist in many parts of the world. Each year the Association sponsors Homecoming, a celebration which brings graduates back to the campus for reunions and other activities.

The Tulane Alumni Fund, organized in 1946 by the alumni themselves, is conducted by Class Agents, Area Representatives and other alumni. The Fund has increased each year both in numbers of contributors and money contributed. It has become a strong financial support of the University and has been another means of nurturing alumni interest.

The Tulane Conferences are in their fifth year and are sponsored by the Tulane Alumni Association and its local clubs. Seminar-type programs have been presented through the Conferences in Alexandria, Baton Rouge, Shreveport, Monroe, Lake Charles and Lafayette, Louisiana; Jackson, Mississippi and Mobile, Alabama.

JAMBALAYA BEAUTY QUEEN

One of the JAMBALAYA staff's most pleasant duties this year was to select a group of fifteen girls to run for the title of Miss Pauline Tulane. Any girl in either Tulane or Newcomb is eligible to vie for this honor except freshmen and those who have served in the court previously. The Student Body then votes to choose Miss Pauline and her court of six maids out of the fifteen. The identity of Miss Pauline Tulane is kept a secret until she is presented at the Tulane Spring Dance.

There are several girls in school this year who have served in past Jamb Beauty Courts. They are: Bart Bridges, Sallie de Ben, Becky Carson Greve, Jackie Jones, Joan Berg Kopman, Flora McIver, Ruth Harper Watson, May Louise White, Sarah Young.

Homecoming Court is presented to the alums at the annual Alumni Dance

Homecoming, the day when alums return to the halls of Tulane to renew "auld acquaintance", was more exciting than ever this year. A precedence was set, too—the game marked the first homecoming game to be played at night under lights!

The first tingle of excitement was felt as elections for the Queen and her court were held. Pretty, blonde Jean Wiggins Cairns was chosen Queen by a vote of the Student Body. Kathy Warden was maid of honor, and other members of the court included Sallie de Ben, Kay Ketelson, Carole Stafford, Claudette Webster, and May Louise White.

Both alums and students got into the swing of things on the eve of the big day. A downtown hotel provided the setting for the lovely Alumni Dance. Simultaneously, the fraternities and sororities were busily decorating their houses with lavish decorations to truly set the mood and welcome back old grads in the grand manner.

The Greenie team put forth their all, and although Georgia Tech outscored them, the game was one of great spirit and excitement. Queen Jean was crowned during the half-time ceremonies and after the game presided over the tremendous Homecoming Dance held that night.

The day was over but would never be forgotten by those who shared in its excitement.

TULANE REVISITED

IN THE BEGINNING . . .

Every year begins with the same routine schedule—moving in, registration, a full and hectic first week of school. But although the places and the externals may be similar to those before, they are unique to each and every one of us. The year ahead will be filled with new activities, new attitudes, and, we all hope, newly acquired knowledge. This week, and the weeks ahead, will be the time remembered as September, 1957. This year you registered for Sociology 331, you rushed for the first time, or you were on the Orientation committee. Or, if you were a Freshman, this whole first week was a new and bewildering blub of experiences, which will gradually sharpen into focus as you become a college man.

You'll always remember the flurry of unpacking, the first tentative overtures at making friends. Perhaps you experienced a few strained moments when you met your roommate before you sat down for a good long talk and ended by pledging eternal friendship.

Roland keeps the new freshman on well-shined toes

An afternoon in the sun is a brief respite from the wearing rush week schedule.

The lounge soon becomes a popular meeting place

GETTING TO KNOW YOU . . .

New surroundings or old, you adapted quickly and soon you were caught up in the hubbub of the new school year.

Then Rush began! An experience to end all experiences—a whole week of partying. You, the Freshmen were in ecstasy, but, you, the “old hands” viewed the spectacle with subdued resignation. After Rush Week the best part of getting acquainted began—namely acquaintance with the opposite sex.

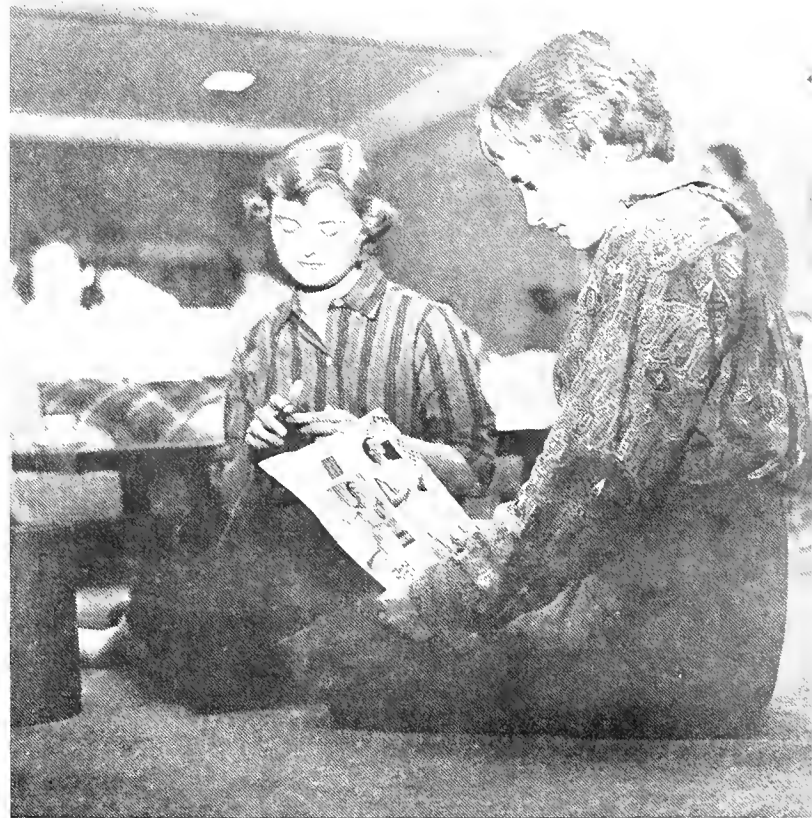

The phones in the dorms were constantly busy and the T. U. operators, telephone and otherwise, were going quietly about their business. For the Newcomb girls who could never be reached by “The Male Animal”, knitting and novels became the order of the day. However, boys could always be found doing the “forbidden”—checking who’s out with whom! And then there comes that first big date with a frat man and you can sign out in the book with prestige! Yes, getting acquainted is a big part of your college life and friendships are made at this time that will last forever.

FORMS AT THE REAR

Lines everywhere! Heat and crowds! Form after form to be filled out—millions of checkers to stamp your forms. These are familiar sights to the upperclassmen and frightening sights to the Freshmen.

The lines look like they will never end and feet feel like they will never be able to take another step. And those cards—pink cards, blue cards, yellow cards, class cards, health cards, cards for every department in the university—and by the time they're all filled out you don't have another drop of ink left to write your name another time.

The boy next to you in line is so timid that he's afraid to ask directions and little does he realize that he's standing in the same line that he just got out of a minute ago. And there's always the one Newcomb girl who ends up in tears because her parents mixed her tuition money up and she has to stand in all these lines again! But who said this registration was such a good place for dates—this particular Newcomb lass is not only tearful because of a tuition mixup—but she's also dateless for the next two weeks.

After getting rid of numerous forms and bucking baby carriages—one must stand another hour so that he can get his I. D. picture taken—not that these are the most flattering pictures but gosh, after standing so long you'd think you'd look better than a prisoner! The line in the book store is endless but all these lines, forms, pictures—all this registration fright goes to a furthering of higher education.

THE NECESSARY EVIL

Classes—the primary reason we are here—the “raison d’être” of the university. Your attitudes toward your classes are new and they will change during the course of the year. Everyone feels that first enthusiasm when he walks away from registration carrying a new schedule and new books. And everyone knows well that mid-term slump, that “School sure would be neat if I didn’t have classes” feeling. But classes are the basis and the foundation of the university, and, although we may doubt it now, or make a cynically humorous remark, our classes are one of the things we shall remember as an integral part of this year at Tulane.

For the Freshman, classes mean more adjustment. You must learn the college methods of study, how to take notes, and how to survive the trauma of exam week. But you too, will acquire the blase attitude toward classes that typifies the college student. Behind it lies a seldom seen real interest that almost all of us possess, but few of us would admit.

An integral part of the Art School Curriculum is life drawing

Campus construction doesn't stop short cuts to class

ANYTHING TO RELAX

That one hour break between classes finds you relaxing in the dorm with a quick card game, talk—or maybe even cramming for that exam next hour. If you really need to be kept awake there's always the cafeteria with its potent coffee—anything to stay awake. At Newcomb your familiar cry is heard throughout the dorm—"Isn't there anybody who wants to play bridge?" Or, "Come listen to my new record—it's really great!"

Leisure moments in the bookstore

Coffee breaks are the backbone of the university

... or a quiet chat on the patio

Coffee, cokes, and cigarettes

After sitting through fifty minutes of what you term agony, a walk around the campus with certain individuals may prove relaxing, or perhaps you'd rather look over the magazines in the Book Store or purchase some of the newest contemporary cards. Some of you may like to relax in the pool practicing life-saving or swimming strokes—or you might like to sit around the campus and swap the latest news.

Yes, studying needs breaks whether they be a gang around the coffee table, a walk around the campus with your favorite companion or just a quick practice dip in the pool. You have your choice as to how you want to relax—or study!

Time out for studying

PROGRESS AMID THE HALLS OF IVY

The deserted look during classes

Turn towards home at the end of the day

The new look on the Newcomb campus

You are the inhabitants of this vast expanse of land known as Tulane University. You are the main characters in a drama of life—your life—college life—that is enacted everyday. The buildings, the stadium with its new lights, the new construction and the dorms—old and new—these are yours—and it is you that make these familiar campus scenes what they are.

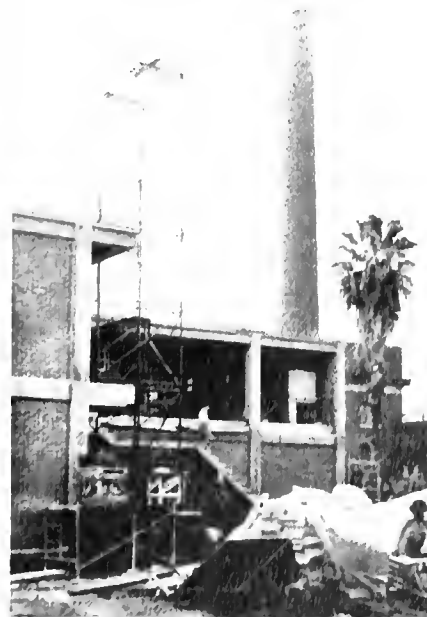

You, the student body are seen sitting on the steps of buildings, taking a break between classes; you are seen walking the familiar paths to Gibson or the Chemistry building. It is for you that the endless noise of piledrivers echos every morning and it is for you that the dorms are built! You are the life of the school and as you look around you as you walk through the campus you can proudly say—“This is my school; these sights are familiar to me because I’m a part of this school and I shall never forget this year of progress at Tulane.”

Lights in the stadium—a new look and a new tradition

ROLL GREEN WAVE

Hullabaloo, Ray, Ray! A shout that resounds throughout the campus during football and basketball seasons and rings in your ears the whole year through—that's the Greenie spirit. It is displayed by you through your participation in the numerous pep rallies held by your student spirit organizations. Remember the fabulous night pep rallies when you screamed your lungs out—and the first time you saw the bonfire illuminate the campus? This was your spirit illuminating the campus—you were behind the Greenies.

LIFE was supposed to be here!

A hell of a Hullabaloo

Final details of Homecoming last until the wee hours

Nobility for a night

The most memorable event perhaps was the night you worked on decorations for Homecoming. The endless nights of work to get the decorations just so—and then the finished product at six o'clock in the morning, filling you with pride—even if you didn't win. And then the game and the presentation of the Homecoming Court—your court—girls who you honored by a popular vote to rule your Homecoming and further illuminate the campus with their pleasant personalities.

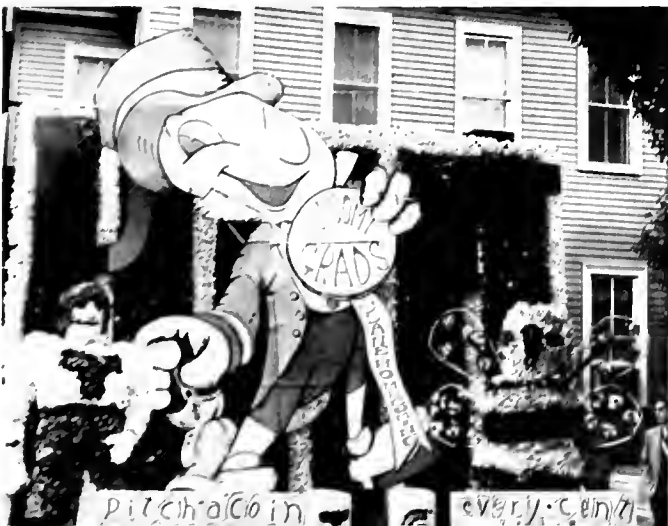

Spirit is a big facet in a school's success or failure with its student body. You helped to make Tulane the spirited school that it is—you are the spirit of Tulane and the spirit behind Tulane's Homecoming.

SPECIAL OCCASIONS

You can't forget the lively times that you enjoy. The costumes at the Beaux Arts Ball are a sight that is never to be forgotten. It is an "eat, drink, and be merry" idea all night long. These are the celebrations that make Tulane a memory that will live on in your mind for a long time to come.

But perhaps a funnier experience for you is to see the Lawyers on their traditional jaunt through the academic buildings on Derby Day. This is more fun for you to witness than Mardi Gras. You see the most "bombed" lawyers in the school and you can hear the sounds of their canes and voices resounding throughout the campus all day long.

On the Newcomb side of the fence the Sophomores get revenge on the popular Freshman Class. You might witness the punishment dealt out at Kangaroo Court, such as sitting on a cake of ice, or squabbling in the mud. You see, this is all a part of the tradition that is carried on with such fervor by you, the students who make the events and traditions of Tulane what they are.

Christmas Night at Tulane

HOW WELL REMEMBERED— TRADITIONS AND SOCIALS

Got a dime for charity?

Still is the night and you are a part of a caroling group that puts the entire campus in a mood of solemnity for the coming season. You experienced not only a good time, but also a personal, inner joy to know that you were a part of this special something for Christmas time. And not only was this a tradition upheld in a joint way by both Newcomb and Tulanians—but a long time tradition upheld in a long remembered way.

Parents enjoy a tour of the campus on Parent's Day

You as the Junior Class at Newcomb upheld the Christmas spirit with your annual Junior Beggar's Day with all proceeds going to Charity. Your cries of "Any extra pennies!" will never be forgotten by your schoolmates. And the Parents Day program enriched the lives of your parents and gave them never to be forgotten memories.

But all was not devoted to work and tradition. You enjoyed yourselves on Saturday afternoons at fraternity parties. Or perhaps you found more entertainment in listening to the combos "Beat out their rhythm on a drum." You may have been among those who were more interested in the contents of "Kickapoo Joy Juice" than the rhythms of a combo, but whatever you enjoyed most—you will never forget the social side of your college life.

BABY—IT'S COLD OUTSIDE

Did you believe what you saw? You had an eight o'clock class—you fought blindly with the alarm clock when—out of the corner of your eye you saw a little white flurry coming from above. You dashed outside—no—the sky wasn't falling—it was SNOW—Real SNOW. You gave it another hour to really come down hard and then out you went! Snowballs were flying everywhere. Snowmen were decorating the campus everyplace you looked. Girls were running into the dorms to put on warmer clothes.

You couldn't believe that the white stuff was sticking—you examined it thoroughly to make sure it was SNOW—when Wham—you got hit in the back with a snowball—IT WAS REAL! Believe it or not you had witnessed a phenomena—the sunny south (brrr) had given way to what Yankees see everyday—you had been caught in the first snow in twenty years at T. U. and the New Orleans Chamber of Commerce would have a lot of explaining to do to tourists as amazed as you were!

Sobriety—the order of the day

Fun and frolic on Mardi Gras Day! You're part of a fun-loving group touring the Quarter, seeing your friends or making new friends! You might enjoy this type of day and then again you might like to be with your favorite companion in a quiet place in the Quarter—if there is such a thing. The pomp and circumstance of Rex is a most enjoyable spectacle for you on this day of celebration—unless of course you have celebrated so much by the time Rex's float passes that you really can't tell too much who it is riding way up there.

LEGALITY

Democracy in action at Tulane

But, in contrast to the jovial spirit of Mardi Gras, you, as a spoke in the wheel of Tulane life play a very serious part in democracy on your campus. With the spring comes the wind of election time. Posters go up, ballot boxes are posted, and you—the student body put a simple X on an even simpler piece of paper by the name of the person you feel most qualified to lead you in the coming year. The leadership of a student body is a responsible job, but the student body itself is what makes the leader carry out his job to the best of his ability. It is you who choose this leader and it is for you that the leader you choose works to please.

The girls go all out for elections

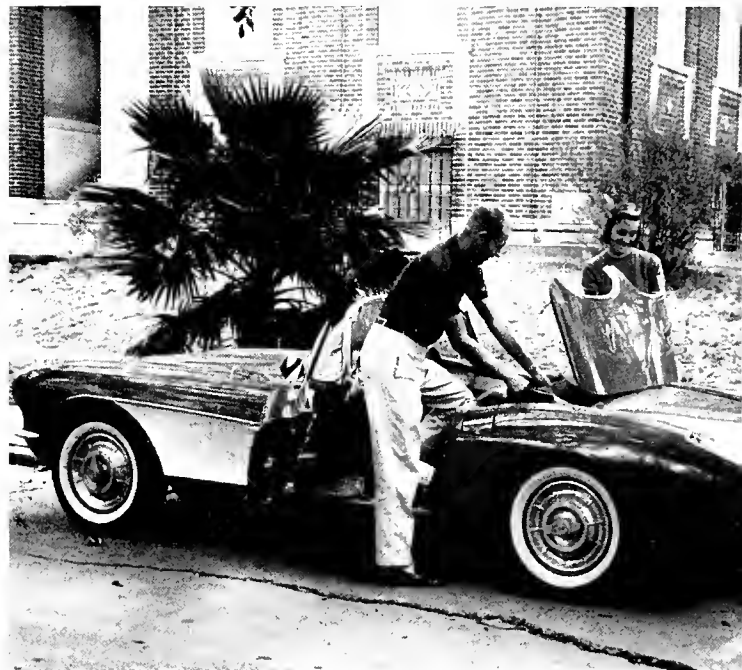

Poker—definitely a part of Tulane

Damn the torpedos! Full speed ahead

AND SO ENDS

A sports car, a date, and a spring afternoon

Second semester draws to a close, and you are caught up in a whirl of final activities. After all, who can study when the Poker Game is at its height or the sun is out and the lake beckons to its sailors? It's rather impossible for you to concentrate on Ibsen or Qualitative Chemistry, when the roar of a sports car whizzes by outside your window or you hear voices calling "The gang's all at Bruno's—let's go." The lake offers a quiet recluse for studying—you think—until once you're out there and the roller coaster looks so inviting and the cotton candy smells so good—and tastes even better. You throw away your Chaucer and Milton and go out and enjoy nature—with the help of the Machine Age. And so exams come and go.

You receive those fatal postcards—you made it—arrangements for next year completed you begin that never failing task—packing. But it's only for a short time that you can store away the memories of TULANE REVISITED, because in less than four months you will again be getting reacquainted, registering, rushing, partying and being a part of a drama that will continue with others for years to come. You will always be a part of the TULANE you knew and as you revisit it you will realize that the backbone of the school you knew was YOU.

It's Friday. Bruno's for bowling and beer

Packing for the final trip home

Alpha of Louisiana chapter of the Beta Gamma Sigma fraternity was established at Tulane in June, 1926. The purpose of the fraternity is to reward and encourage scholarship and accomplishments in all phases of business among the students and graduates of the School of Business Administration, and to foster principles of honesty and integrity in business practices. Members are elected from the junior and senior classes who have attained high scholarship and show promise of marked ability. Undergraduate members are chosen by the faculty members of the fraternity.

Alpha Sigma Lambda is the national honorary scholarship fraternity of university evening colleges. Membership is based upon scholarship and leadership, and initiates must have at least fifteen semester hours in subjects outside of their major field.

Theta Chapter was organized at Tulane in 1954. Twenty charter members were initiated in the spring of that year, as well as ten honorary members who were primarily members of the faculty. Honorary members are named to membership by the executive committee of the chapter on the basis of their interest and service to University College.

The original constitution of Theta Chapter was revised in 1957 according to the provisions of the national constitution. The revision was aimed primarily toward allowing the members to maintain active status beyond their date of graduation. The new constitution provides for three grades of membership: active, associate, and honorary. Members have active status as long as they are enrolled in any division of Tulane University and for three years following their graduation. At the end of this period they are designated as associate members. The grade of associate member is also designated for students who have not graduated, and who do not attend Tulane for a period exceeding one year. Those in the latter category may be reinstated to active membership upon petition when they return to Tulane.

The Order of the Coif, a national legal honor society, was established at Tulane in 1931. The order recognizes senior law students for exceptional ability and performance in law and in the law school. Leadership and service to the school and community, as well as the scholastic achievement, are considered when the new members are elected each spring from members of the senior class. Each year the chapter also initiates as an honorary member a Louisiana lawyer whose devotion to the law and public service has been outstanding.

Omicron Delta Kappa, National Leadership Honor Society for men, recognizes and honors those students, members of the faculty, and others who have demonstrated distinguished leadership in extra-curricular activities and in service to Tulane University. Members are chosen twice a year, and are presented at public tappings. Dr. Joseph Morris, vice-president of Tulane and Professor of Physics, was the faculty choice this year.

Omicron Delta Kappa was founded at Washington and Lee University in 1914. The Alpha Zeta Circle at Tulane was established in 1930. This year Alpha Zeta Circle was host to the Province 5 convention held every two years at one of the sixteen province schools.

Students from approximately 600 colleges and universities are nominated and recognized in Who's Who each year. Campus nominating committees are instructed, in making their decisions, to consider the student's scholarship; his cooperation in leadership in academic and extra-curricular activities; his service and citizenship to the school; and his promise of future usefulness. Recognition of Who's Who means that the student was first officially recommended from the university or college he attends and then accepted by the organization. These are the Tulane students who have been selected for Who's Who this year.

MORTAR BOARD

ELIZABETH STEPHENSON*President*
LINDA KATZ*Secretary*

On March 1, 1958, the one hundredth national chapter of Mortar Board was installed at Newcomb College. Current members of Alpha Sigma Sigma, a senior honorary society which was founded at Newcomb in 1916, were initiated into Mortar Board as its charter members. Mortar Board will continue such projects of Alpha Sigma Sigma as the supervision of the Freshman Orientation Program, direction of Freshman Government, and participation of the Advisory System. Mortar Board members will be elected on the basis of superior scholarship, outstanding participation in student activities and unselfish service to the school.

Assets is an honorary society based on leadership, scholarship, service and school spirit. Each year in the spring the Assets, active at the time, elect Freshmen, outstanding in these qualities, to become members for the following year. The names of those girls who are chosen are announced at the last Newcomb Student Body meeting of the year.

In their Sophomore year the newly elected Assets begin their activities as "Big Sisters" to the new students throughout the orientation program. During the remainder of the year they participate in Kangaroo Court held for the Freshmen and serve as ushers for various campus activities.

The Publications Board is the advisory committee to all campus publications. It meets to discuss the problems and policies of the JAMBALAYA, Hullabaloo, Student Directory, and Wave. The Publications Board is a permanent committee of the student council, its membership being set down in the council's constitution as the editor and business manager of each publication and three members-at-large selected by the student council.

In the spring semester the Publications Board has the responsibility of choosing the editor and business manager for each publication for the following year. The students that are chosen become the Publications Board for the next year.

The Business Staff holds an informal meeting.

Jamb Staff rushing to meet the fateful deadline.

The JAMBALAYA, as the yearbook of Tulane, tries every year to give the students of the university the best possible memories of the year. This job is, of course, up to the staff of the JAMBALAYA. The 1958 staff presents this book as the best of its combined abilities. The talents of photographers Tom Webb, Betsy Swanson, and Wayne McVadon have been captured in the casual photographs of life on the campus. The writing ability of Sandy Schwartz, the persistence and organization of Joel Jacobson, the humor of John Combe and the perseverance of Ann Harris are all combined under the directiveness of the editor, Barney Barnum, and the associate editors, Jerry Anthony, Vaughn Burdin, and Norman Glosserman.

The layouts and designs have been pondered over day in and day out. The constant clacking of typewriters was a familiar sound in the ears of the Jamb Staff as the FOREBODING calendar on the wall warned us of an approaching deadline. But, despite rushing to get copy finished, pictures printed and layouts looking as nearly professional as possible, the JAMBALAYA Staff had many moments of fun in preparing this—your yearbook—and we sincerely hope that you, the student body, have as much fun reading it and remembering 1958.

Hullabaloo Staff inspects current issue.

The first issue of the 1957 Hullabaloo saw a major style change with the adoption of the regular seven-column newspaper. The modified tabloid page and make-up were thrown out in an attempt to turn the Hulla into a more professional looking publication.

First and foremost, the editorial page was designed as a balance between the radical and conservative elements of campus thinking. A very real attempt was made to stay away from the "yellow" journalistic practices so prevalent a couple of years ago. At the same time we took a definite stand on issues pertinent to the student body.

The Hulla, as in years past, again took a stand on segregation, stating our belief that it is an inevitable sociological change. Also, we carried on an active "get-out-the-candidates" campaign in an effort to interest more students in competing for student body offices.

We began the year working with a skeleton reporting staff, but as the year progressed so did we. The whole staff worked long hours to put this year's Hullabaloo on a more attractive, readable and adult basis.

The Tulane Law Review, a professional legal journal published in quarterly issues, is the oldest journal of its kind in Louisiana. It is published by the students and faculty of the School of Law and emphasizes the study of comparative law. The Review contains scholarly articles by leading members of the legal profession and a student section, prepared by members of the Student Board of Editors, which deals with current legal problems. The Student Board of Editors is composed of honor students in the College of Law who have exhibited outstanding legal writing ability.

TUSK

The Tulane University Spirit Klub, the oldest spirit organization on the Tulane campus, is an honorary organization for the promotion of school spirit. It is composed of members of every social fraternity and sorority as well as independents who have shown their ability and desire to foster better school spirit at Tulane.

TUSK began the year by selling "greenie beanies" to the freshmen and aiding in orientation. During football season TUSK sponsored pep rallies, bonfires, contests for the most spirited fraternity and sorority, distributed slogan stickers, passed out megaphones and shakers at Homecoming, and helped publicize spirit by painting signs and the use of sound trucks.

Later in the year TUSK sponsored "Howdey Week" on campus to promote a friendly spirit among Tulane and Newcomb students. The organization also participated in Campus Carnival, cheering sections at basketball games and carried out various service functions designated by the Student Council.

A TUSK member is distinguished by his blue jacket with the green and blue "T" and white tusk. TUSK members this year have worked toward an increasing spirit of cooperation and enthusiasm at Tulane. This new school spirit cannot only be attributed to the efforts of TUSK and other groups but to an aroused student body.

Greenbackers, the oldest spirit organization on the Tulane campus, is made up of members chosen by a majority vote of the entire membership. The members are representative of all the fraternities, sororities, and independents on campus.

The Greenbackers, during the football season, helped with seating in the student section at the games, sponsored pep rallies where members presented skits depicting the spirit of the coming football game, distributed slogan stickers, painted publicity posters, and decorated goal posts. Other activities during the year included participation in campus carnival and presentation of awards to the seniors of the basketball team at the last game of the season. The organization also carried out various service functions designated by the Student Council.

CHEERLEADERS

With an underdog Greenie team the cheerleaders, together with the student body, showed real spunk during the 1957 season. Of course, they also exhibited their enthusiasm at basketball games, bonfires, and pep rallies. They aroused spirit not only on the home grounds, but also at the Texas game in Austin, Army game in New York city, Mississippi State game in Jackson, and the traditional fight with L.S.U. in Baton Rouge.

The cheerleaders have proven to be leaders both in the stadium and on the campus. They were outstanding members in Greenbackers, TUSK, and Lagniappes.

Heading the group this year was Tommy Smith, a two-year veteran. He was ably assisted by veterans Gilbert Andry, Diane Orkin, and Charles King, and newcomers Beth Monroe, Phyllis Alexander, and Bill Kennedy.

The Opera Workshop consists of students interested in all phases of music theatre and meets two to four nights a week when in production. The productions this year included:

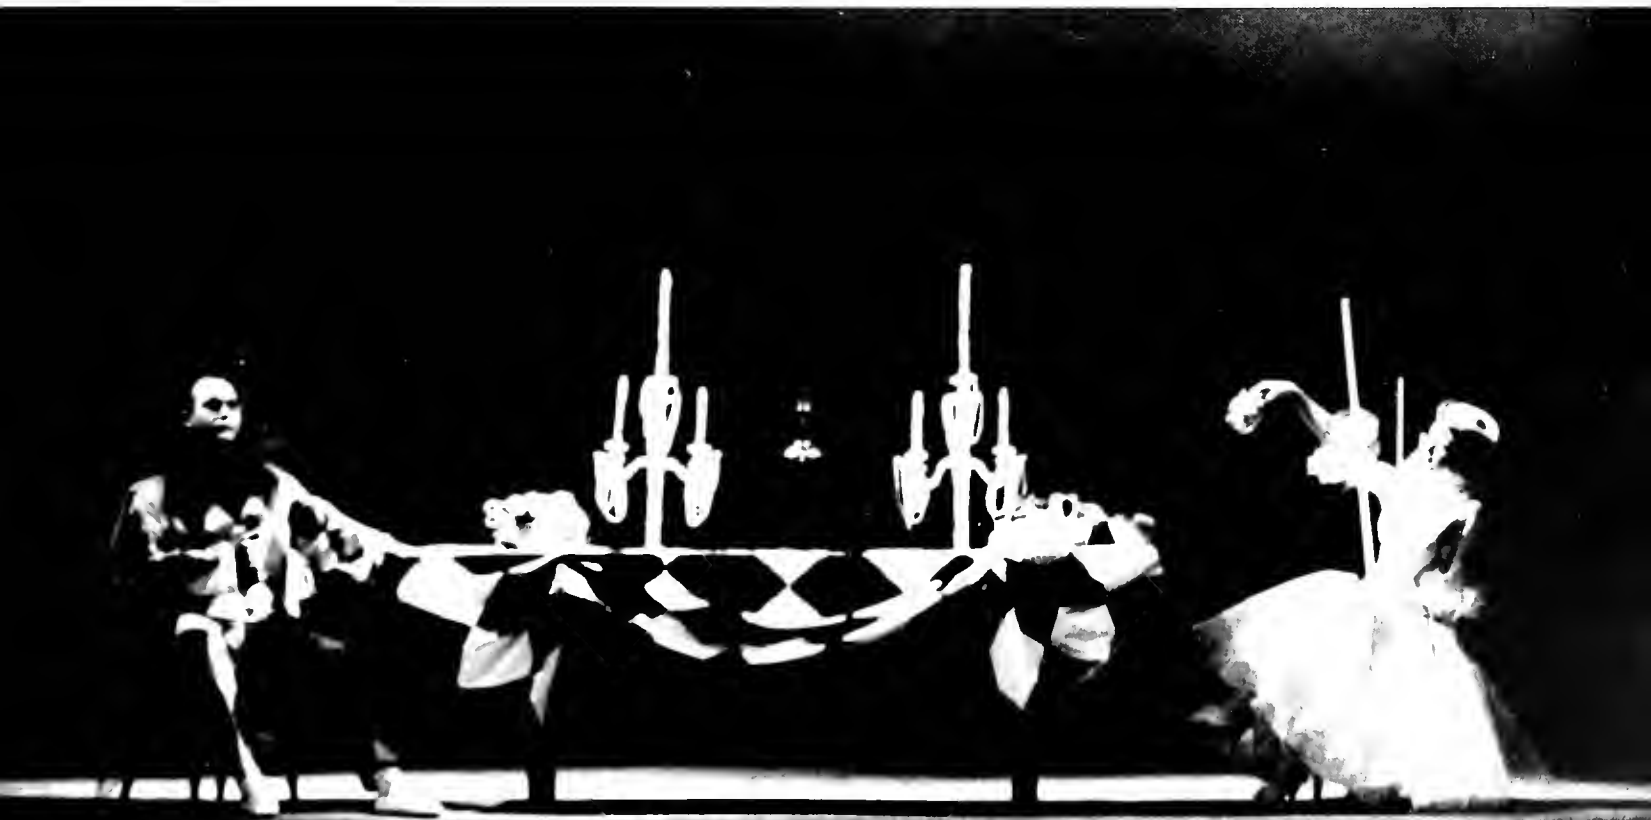

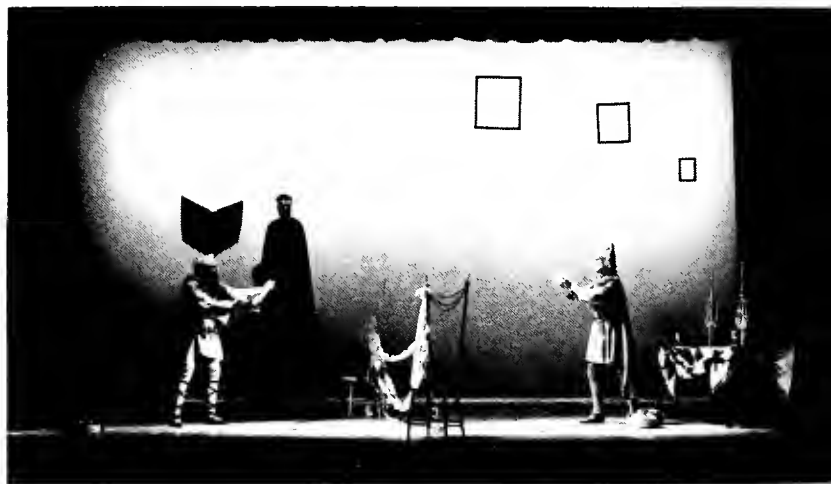

Malady of Love, a one-act comic opera by Lehman Engel.

Aria da Capo, a one-act chamber opera by Cardon Burnham with libretto by Edna St. Vincent Millay (first performance).

The Medium, by Gian Carlo Menotti.

And three performances of The Emperor's New Clothes, by Douglas Moore in cooperation with the New Orleans Symphony for the Louisiana Youth Concerts.

All workshop productions are given in the auditorium of Dixon Hall, and the sceneshop is located directly across from the stage wing.

The main activity of the Tulane University Theatre (TUT) is to produce four shows during the course of the year. It is an experimental theatre and, consequently, the productions are variously chosen. Because of the different range of styles, the audience as well as the casts and crews have an opportunity to enjoy plays which may be classified anywhere between tragedy and farce.

All members of the university student body, faculty and staff are eligible to participate in any phase of the productions: backstage crew work or as a cast member. There is, however, an organization known also as the Tulane University Theatre which is composed of those people who have fulfilled the requirements for active membership by successfully participating in two shows per season: probationary membership is granted to those people who have successfully worked one show. This organization assists the faculty in the choice of the next season's plays, actively participated in the production of each show, and serves to stimulate interest throughout the campus for the Tulane University Theatre productions.

There are two honorary organizations into which people can earn membership through their outstanding service and ability: The Cornerblock and Keystone Club, awarded for excellence in backstage work, and the National Collegiate players, accorded to those who have been "all around" members of casts and/or crews.

During the 1957-58 season, TUT produced Dangerous Corner, a mystery with an ironic plot device; Ghosts, Ibsen's most controversial play which has tragic undertones; Cradle Song, a graduate student production, which is a sentimental comedy about life in a convent; and Twelfth Night, one of Shakespeare's gay and romantic comedies.

The Tulane University Band draws its membership, during the football season, from the male students of the University. During the concert season, membership is open to women as well. The Band performs at all home football games and is noted for its performance of popular swing music at each of its half-time performances. At each game a Dixieland Combo, made up of members from the band, is featured.

The Band is centered around its capable director, John J. Morrissey, without whose inspiration the Tulane Band would not exist. Mr. Morrissey's national reputation as a composer is well known.

In addition to its yearly Spring Concert, the Band gave concerts in Memphis, Tennessee, and in Clarksdale and Jackson, Miss.

Tulane-Newcomb Campus Niters worked long and hard to successfully present "Name Your Poison," an original musical comedy, for the 1958 production.

The script for the show, which was given on March 28 and 29, was written by Ed Chadick in early September. The student organization took the original script and produced the entire show—wrote the lyrics, planned the choreography, solved the technical problems, constructed scenery, handled publicity, and drew up a larger and more complete program.

Under the direction of Mike Parver, work on this murder set to music got started early in February and the cast worked diligently until the time of presentation.

The complete cast included approximately 40 people with lead roles being taken over by Don Dorminey, Roland Guer-rin, Doris Halpern, Carol Doskey, D. J. Spitzberg, Lenny Hoffman, Lewis Paillet, and Diane Katz.

The plot centered around the Borgia family and the schemes of murder and kidnapping that went on concerning the family situations. There was plenty of excitement plus love scenes and even experiments with poisons of various kinds with which several servants were killed in the process of the play. But eventually everything worked out and the lovers departed for a happier life.

All in all, Campus Niters did a wonderful job, had a good time, and presented a wonderful show.

The Tulane Glee Club consists of a group of men who enjoy singing many types of music literature, ranging from the more serious choral music to arrangements of folk songs and selections from musical comedies. The men appear annually on the Christmas Candlelight Concert along with the Newcomb Glee Club and the A Capella Choir. In the spring they joined forces with the larger University Chorus and performed along with the New Orleans Symphony the contemporary choral work, CARMINA BURANA, in the first performance in New Orleans. Membership in the Glee Club is open to all Tulane students who enjoy singing.

The Newcomb Glee Club, composed of 45 members, meets twice each week throughout the academic year. Among its various activities, the organization performs twice a year for the Newcomb memorial services, participates in the Christmas Candlelight Concert, and joins the Tulane Glee Club for the spring concert. The Club also joins the University Chorus for its annual performance. The Glee Club covers a wide range of musical literature from 16th century polyphonic music to contemporary music by composers writing specifically for women's voices, such as Vaughn Williams' "Magnificat," and Henry Cowell's "American Muse."

The Interfaith Council is composed of two representatives and an adviser from each religious organization on campus. It has as its purpose the promotion of religious emphasis among students and of an increased understanding on the part of the students of the fundamental tenets of all faiths represented.

The Council coordinates and brings to the students such programs as: religious orientation for incoming students, periodic showing of films of a religious nature and a program of speakers for the stimulation of an intellectual religious atmosphere at the University. To augment this program of education there is an annual display on campus, during Religious Emphasis Week, to familiarize the student with the beliefs, programs and activities of each organization.

We meet at the Westminster House at 1122 Broadway every Sunday night for a supper meeting. Our chapel service is held here too, Monday through Friday.

LT. COL. FRED A. POLUMBO
Professor of Military Science and Tactics

School began early for the senior class of the Tulane Army ROTC Cadet Corps. Under the hot Virginia sun the Tulane cadets received field training at Fort Eustis, home of the Transportation Corps. After achieving an enviable record at camp, five of the encampments top seven cadets were Tulanians, the senior class returned to the local campus to lead the cadet corps to a very successful year.

Basically an Army Transportation Corps unit, the Tulane Battle Group is responsible for the training of college students, so that they may qualify upon graduation as commissioned officers of the Army of the United States.

The big military event of the year was the Inspector General's annual inspection of the Battle Group. Drills, inspections and classroom instruction, led by upper classmen under cadre supervision, preceded this visit. The 300 man Tulane group passed with flying colors. The company "K" Pershing Rifle drill team represented the unit at competitive drills and as honor guards at many university functions. Rifle team matches were a regular occurrence, with Tulane a consistent winner. Other unit activities included an active chapter of the National Defense Transportation Association, a chapter of the Association of the United States Army and competition in the university's intramural sports program.

The annual military ball, held in February, was the chief social event of the corps year. The Battle Group sponsors were presented at this time. Numerous class parties additionally highlighted the cadet social life.

A great factor in the year's success is the excellent Army cadre at Tulane, always ready to aid the individual in his training. Lieutenant Colonel Fred A. Polimbo is the Professor of Military Science and Tactics. Other assigned officers are Major Stephen G. Stone, Jr.; and Captains Charles C. Glasgow, Jr., and William D. Williams, Jr. Enlisted personnel include Masters Sgts. Roger W. Lyon and Homer F. Evans; Sergeants First Class Floyd N. Peak, Jr., and James L. Robinson; Sergeants Barney R. Harris and Charles C. Hoy, Sr.; and Specialist Coak E. Elliott.

Frequent inspections keep the cadets looking their best.

Crossing the Equator is a big "ceremony."

The Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps with 233 Midshipmen enrolled started its nineteenth year.

The mission of the NROTC unit at Tulane University of Louisiana, commanded by Captain E. T. Eves, is to supplement the United States Naval Academy in providing officers, both regular and reserve, for the Navy and Marine Corps.

The regular program receives candidates from a national examination conducted on a competitive basis in each state. Regular midshipmen must serve three years on active duty as a commissioned officer following the successful completion of four years college and the acquisition of a Bachelor's Degree. Starting with the class of 1961, regular midshipmen will be required to serve four years on active duty.

The contract program receives qualified students who enter into mutual contract with the Navy Department and are selected by the commanding officer from those who apply in their freshman year. Contract midshipmen must serve as commissioned officers on active duty for two years, if called by the Secretary of the Navy, upon completion of a four year University curriculum and acquisition of a Bachelor's Degree.

Academic training for both regular and contract midshipmen is supplemented by summer training cruises aboard Naval vessels and summer training at Naval Bases or Marine Corps Schools.

The NROTC sponsors many activities each year and competes in all areas of intramural sports.

AIR FORCE R. O. T. C.

Inspection at Air Force drill.

It was just eleven short years ago that Tulane's first AF ROTC cadets dreamed of flying their B-29's across an ocean or zooming their F-30's into the stratosphere. They've done it. Today, the cadets you see pictured on these pages are asking, "How many hours is it to the moon?" or, "Which way to the next space station?" And they, too, will do it. Through the study of Air Science, they have accepted the challenge of new frontiers in this dynamic new Air Force ROTC program.

Since everything has its beginning, so too do our cadets have their starting point. For freshmen and sophomores, the Basic Course provides the background in aviation history, global geography, international tensions, elements of aerial warfare, targets, bases and operations—a background necessary for true understanding of the meaning of citizenship in this Air Age in which we now live. Meanwhile, the Basic cadet learns close-order drill and formations under the leadership of senior cadet officers. Toward the end of the sophomore year, things begin happening in rapid succession—physical exams, officer qualification tests and notification of acceptance for the Advanced Course.

With Colonel Charles Sommers and his staff acting only as advisors, the Advanced Course AFROTC cadets constitute the backbone of the program. They plan and execute the training mission of the Cadet Wing. Meanwhile, in the classroom the academic phase of their training continues. Midway in this Advanced Course, during the summer, our cadets go off to an Air Force base for a taste of Air Force life under actual conditions, including flights in both conventional and jet aircraft.

Finally, on graduation day, our finished product receives his commission as a second lieutenant and readies himself for his tour of active duty with the United States Air Force. He looks back on four years of hard work and many moments of more pleasurable experiences — the military balls, the sponsors, the drill team competitions, the intramurals, the day he first learned he didn't have two left feet.

Cadets enjoy the Air Force Ball.

The Tailhook Club is an organization within the NROTC Battalion composed of midshipmen interested in Naval Aviation. Although the club is relatively young, it has functioned with particular success this year.

To attain Flight membership, the Fledgling must present a paper on some aspect of Naval Aviation and take an indoctrinational flight in a navy aircraft. Plus encouraging participation in the flights available from the new Naval Air Station, the members hear talks from Naval Aviators at the regular meetings. Through these talks, panel discussions, and accompanying movies, midshipmen considering flight training are able to choose more wisely what part of the navy best suits them. Members are provided with the opportunity of getting a close look at what they can expect during flight training through an annual trip to the Annapolis of the Air at Pensacola, Florida. These trips have proven to be enjoyable as well as interesting and enlightening.

In today's age of aviation, the Tailhook Club is presented with a particular opportunity to support the NROTC program through promoting interest in and by fostering increased knowledge of the prominent position that Naval Aviation has in our national defense.

ROBERT AMMEN President

The Anchor and Chain Society of Tulane is a voluntary organization of midshipmen within the NROTC. Its main function is the planning of the social activities of the unit.

The year got off to a bang with the Welcome Aboard Ball on October first. The Shipwreck Party got the Mardi Gras weekend off to a roaring start with the costumed midshipmen and their dates viewing the parade of Hermes as it rolled past the site of the party. The biggest party of the year is always the Farewell Ball honoring the graduating seniors during commencement week in the spring.

TULANE 13 • VPI 14

Warner returns Gobbler kick 89 yards for Greenies second score.

A highly underrated V.P.I. squad spoiled Tulane's opening game as they upset the Wave, 14-13. The Greenie rooters on hand for Tulane's first night encounter were forced to watch most of the game without the service of the team's key man, Gene Newton, who suffered an injury on the third play from scrimmage and did not return to action until the final quarter had gotten under way, with Tulane trailing 14-0.

A big break came for the Wave about 10 minutes after the fourth quarter began. Until the last quarter V.P.I. seemed to have the Green Wave's ground attack bottled up. A 15-yard penalty for rough play pushed the Gobblers back on their own nine, forcing them to punt. It was a "pop foul fly" that went out of bounds on Tech's 14 and Virgil Jester quickly followed up the advantage with an off tackle dash to the one-foot line. After a buck by Connie Andrews was stopped on the six-inch line, Newton picked a spot off right tackle, kept, and went over for the score.

In the last three minutes the Greenies, fighting desperately again, forced the Gobblers to punt. Tech got off a good boot that Warner took in as he moved one stride from the 10,

Longhorn tripped up after short gain.

Newton threw a perfect block that sent the fleet back on an 89-yard jaunt for Tulane's second score.

Marcel led the Wave offensive by gaining 37 yards in 12 carries. Tarzetti picked up 33 yards on four tries. Mason gained 21 yards in four attempts.

TULANE 6 • TEXAS 20

After battling a big and fiercely charging team of Texas Longhorns to a standstill for three periods, the Tulane Greenies weakened and Texas, striking with sensational speed and efficiency, registered a 20-6 victory in a game that was tied 6-6 when the fourth quarter opened.

There have been bigger and better Tulane teams, but never a one that showed such magnificent teamwork on defense. Every man that Tulane put into the game did his part. Big Richie Petitbon proved one of the Greenie's strong rushees. Gene Newton was superb in handling the team. D. A. Emerson, King Fleming, Johnny DiVietro, Roy Marcel, Jack Montgomery, Dan Egan, "Boo" Mason, Benny Tyler, Tommy Warner, Jim Blount, Don Lockwood, Charlie Hansen, Will Billon, Pete Abadie, and Dave Painter played their hearts out for the Wave. They stopped the best plays Walt Fondren could throw at them.

Sugar Bowl bound Texans wrap it up.

Tulane drew first blood five minutes into the opening period when Newton crossed up the Texans with a 20-yard pass to Tarzetti to the Longhorn one and from there Petitbon smashed over center for the touchdown. Texas evened the score late in the quarter when Lackety completed a 20 yard aerial to Ramirez down to the Wave 12. Ramirez then skirted left end for nine and from the two Fondren went over on a quarterback sneak.

About half way through the third quarter Tulane's lack of reserve strength and the grueling battle began to take its toll on the small Greenies' squad. The fatal fireworks came in the fourth period.

Texas made 14 first downs to Tulane's nine, but the Greenies outrushed them 197 to 174. Tommy Warner was the night's leading ground-gainer with 57 yards, "Boo" Mason gained 37 with Newton tallying 31, Tarzetti 26, and Petitbon 25.

"Boo" hits tackle for two.

TULANE 20 • MARQUETTE 6

The Green Wave spotted Marquette an early touchdown and then proceeded to reel off three spectacular runs to defeat the Warriors 20 to 6.

Tulane's speed was too much for the big Marquette team. "Boo" Mason scored the Wave's first touchdown on a 33 yard run over right guard. The Tulane scatback, taking a lateral from Newton on the 22, went all the way to pick up Tulane's second TD also.

The Greenie's final score proved to be the most spectacular play of the game. Newton intercepted a pass from Tom Sunderbruch on the Tulane 46. Seeing an opening to the right the "Mouse" swept toward the side line but bumped into the referee and was almost knocked to the ground. Regaining his balance, the little quackback reversed his field, and getting a key block from Mason, was again on his way. However, two warrior defenders had Newton pinned around the 10 but he again reversed his field and faking, side stepped both and raced into the end zone. The runback covered 54 yards.

Marquette took the Greenies by surprise by marching from their own 37 for a touchdown right after the opening kickoff. Ernie Safran connected with halfback Clarence Brunton on a 23-yard aerial to put the pigskin on the Tulane 26. After picking up a first down on the Wave 14, Safran, faking a pass, skirted left end for a 11-yard gain. Lon Castro broke through right guard for the touchdown. For the remainder of the game the Marquette offense was held intact by the efforts of the Green Wave front wall and secondary.

Tulane's ground attack functioned quite well as the Greenies completed 16 first downs and mustered 335 yards rushing to the Warriors' 14 firsts and only 187 yards.

TULANE 6 • GEORGIA 13

Georgia's Bulldogs upset the Green Wave of Tulane 13 to 6 in one of the most hard fought and exciting games of the season.

With less than two minutes remaining and Tulane trailing

Britt of Georgia sweeps for naught.

13 to 0. Richie Petitbon dropped back to Georgia's 45 yard line and sent a magnificent pass that Newton speared on the one and fell over for the lone Greenie tally.

Petitbon was one of Tulane's big stars on offense. The tall sophomore passed well, ran well, and played a fine defensive game.

John DeVietro, Will Billon, Jim Blount, Charlie Cotro, Don Lockwood, and Bill Clements all contributed yeoman work. Mason, Warner, Andrews and Petitbon did an excellent job of stopping Georgia's heralded overhead attack as the Bulldogs netted but 24 yards to the Wave's 129.

The Bulldogs punched across their first score early in the second period via a Tulane fumble on the Greenie six. However a 55 yard gallop by Theron Sapp, Georgia's ace ground-gainer, late in the opening quarter paved the way for the touchdown.

Toward the end of the third period a bad pass from center for Tulane gave the ball to Georgia on the Wave 15. Soberdash bucked off tackle down to the seven and three plays later Orr twisted off tackle for the TD.

Mississippi could do no wrong, as they avenged last year's defeat by manhandling Tulane 50 to 0. Paralyzed by power, the poor Greenies couldn't do a thing.

The Rebels' crushing ground attack dominated the entire game. They pushed the Wave up and down the field for 416 yards while the Greenies could only muster 64.

Tulane, however, battled the SEC titans right down to the final whistle. In the third period, behind 32-0, Newton began passing. He tossed to "Boo" Mason for 13, to Tommy Warner for 10, to Mason for four and to end Leo Young for 18. The Wave's field general then faked a pass and cut through for 10 to the Red and Blue 13. However, two plays later, Gene was knocked down, fumbled, and Don Williams recovered for Mississippi.

TULANE 0 • OLE MISS 50

Lovlace cracks Wave defense for Rebel six-pointer.

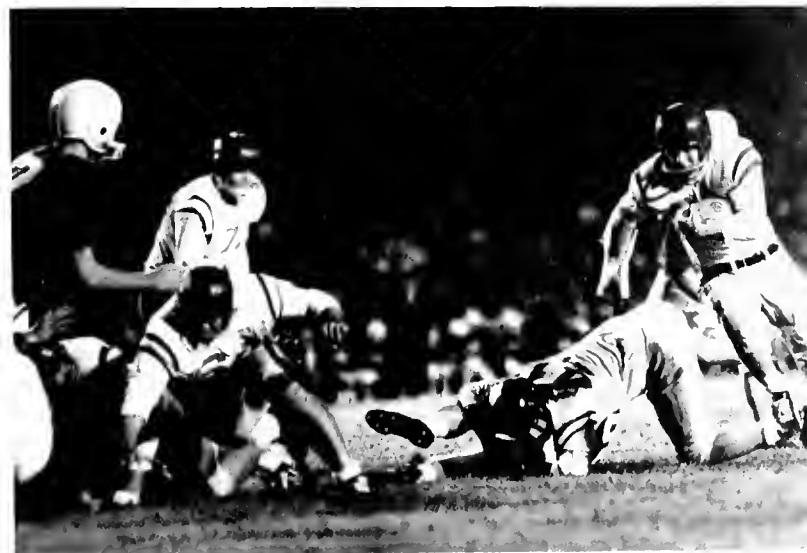

The Greenies held and when they got the ball, Carlton Sweeney, now calling the signals, starting throwing. He hit Mason for twelve yards, but on the next one Hurst grabbed it for Ole Miss on his 45 and raced all the way down to the Tulane 12. Brown flipped to Williams for the T.D.

Greenie hopes were raised when Gene Tazetti returned the Reb kickoff 35 yards, but moments later a Tazetti fumble gave the ball to Ole Miss on the Tulane 46. Brown ripped off 33 yards to the 13, and it took hammering Hurst only two plays to go over for 44-0.

Ole Miss had a team that could do everything. They were stout on defense and fast. The Wave did well in making 13 first downs.

Before the game Ole Miss athletic director Tad Smith said, "We'll have a pretty good team before the season's over—soon as our sophomores come around." They came around—around both ends and through the middle!

TULANE 13 GEORGIA TECH 20

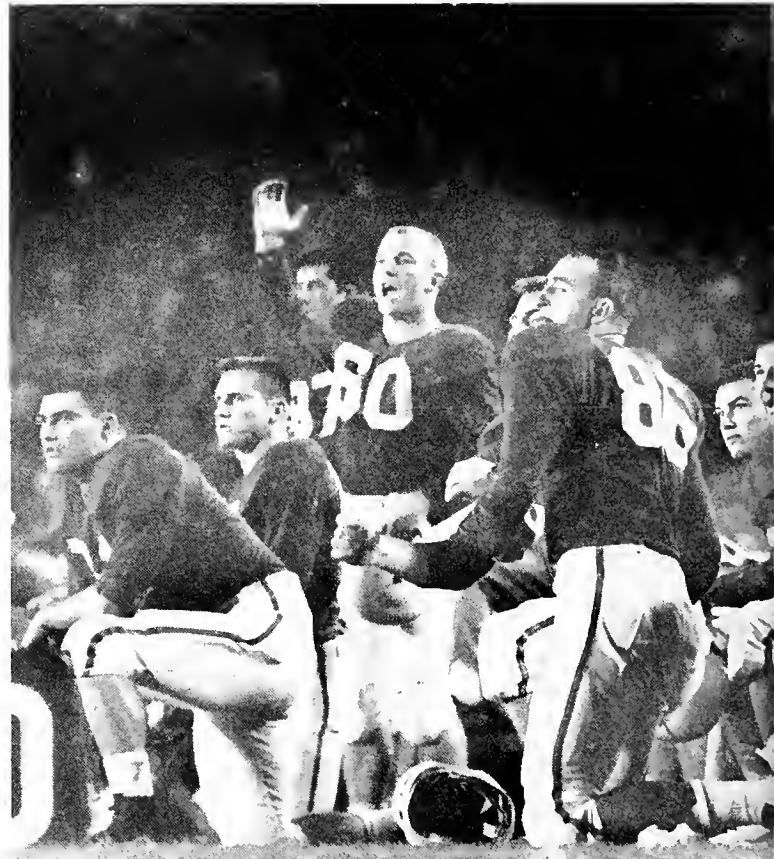

An inspired Tulane eleven battled victory-hungry Georgia Tech to a 20 to 13 thrill-packed conclusion before an enthusiastic home-coming crowd.

Tech's winning margin came in the fourth quarter when fullback Jim Benson pushed over for the touchdown from Tulane's 11. Fred Braselton converted to make it 20 to 7.

Tulane scored later in the period on a drive spearheaded by Richie Petitbon, climaxed by a pass to Will Ellzey for the TD.

The Jackets took the lead shortly after play started when Cal James bucked 15 yards off tackle for a touchdown. The conversion was good.

The Wave evened it all yards later in the quarter when Virgil Jester, Gene Newton and Connie Andrews combined talents to move the ball from Tech's 41 down to their two. Andrews bulled over and Newton converted to knot the score 7-7.

"Give 'em hell, Greenies!"

Connie Andrews eludes Bama tackler.

The third period brought about Tulane's doom when Jim Simerville returned a Wave kickoff 89 yards for a touchdown.

Tulane moved deep into Tech territory several times during the remainder of the game but were unable to capitalize.

Tech registered 11 first downs to Tulane's 4 on rushing, but the Greenies chalked up four first downs against Tech's none on passing. The Engineers gained 185 yards rushing against the Green Wave's 145.

Guard Jim Blount and Bill Clements, center Neal Jones, and Tackle Charlie Hansen were outstanding for the Olive and Blue.

Virgil Jester led the Wave rushing attack with 35 yards in four attempts. Andrews was right behind with 31. Petitbon was sharp on passing as he completed 5 out of 10 for 51 yards.

TULANE 6 • MISSISSIPPI STATE 27

The Greenies pressed State for three quarters but weakened in the final period to succumb to the Maroons, 27-6.

After battling the Wave hard to protect a 7-6 lead for the first three periods, Mississippi State broke the game wide open in the final quarter when they punched across three touchdowns.

The score doesn't indicate how closely the Greenies fought the Maroons. Tulane's line played exceptionally well with boys like Clements, Jones, Hansen, Blount, and Egan starring on defense.

Tulane's lone touchdown at the end of the third quarter was setup by a pass from Carlton Sweeney to Will Ellzey to the three. Connie Andrews legged it over for the score.

The player who rose to the occasion was Carlton Sweeney, third string quarterback. The chunky sophomore surprised everyone with his fine passing and generalship.

Billy Stacy had a big day, passing and running and directing the State attack. Gil Peterson was probably the toughest back for the Greenies to stop, especially on pitchouts and runs around end. Bubber Traminel was also an outstanding performer for the Maroons.

Tulane fell one shy of matching Mississippi State in first downs, 15-16. The Wave completed 14 of 23 passes attempted for 159 yards as opposed to State's 94. Tulane netted 136 yards on the ground.

TULANE 6 • ALABAMA 0

Tulane, putting up a very stubborn defense, whitewashed Alabama 7-0, in Mobile.

The Greenies' winning margin came near the end of the first quarter when Richie Petitbon replaced Newton at quarterback and engineered the Greenies to their TD on nine plays. Connie Andrews continually carried the ball and moved the Wave down to the Tides' four. Petitbon was held for no gain, then on the next play, Richie raced wide around right end across the Alabama goal line for the score. Jim Blount made the kick good for the extra point.

Tulane got great line play from Blount, Charlie Hansen, Don Lockwood, Bill Clements, Neal Jones and ends, Will Billon. Pete Abadie and Leo Young were all outstanding.

Connie Andrews and Jeff Bratton shared backfield duties as Claude Mason and Roy Marcel were out nursing bruises.

Bobby Smith was Alabama's best ground gainer, accounting for 47 of the Tides' 95 yards rushing.

The Waves' ground attack worked so well that only five aeriels were attempted the entire afternoon. The Olive and Blue clicked for 187 yards.

Petitbon flanks "Elvis" winning marker.

The Olive and Blue battled a heavy and red-hot Army team to a standstill, but a desperate final period surge by the Cadets, sparked by Pete Dawkins and Bob Anderson, changed a 14-13 Tulane victory into a 20-14 Army triumph.

A 61 yard run by "Boo" Mason from scrimmage to score the first touchdown of the game a bit more than seven minutes after play opened and a sensational 65 yard punt return by Richie Petitbon in the third period accounted for Tulane's two scores. Petitbon's run and the conversion by Blount put the Greenies in front 14 to 13. They just didn't have the manpower to hold on.

The Cadets knotted the score 7 to 7 early in the second period when they smashed 89 yards on 18 plays.

Not long after Dawkins and Anderson teamed up to push across the second Cadet touchdown. Virgil Jester blocked Maurice Hillard's try for the extra point and, however, was injured on the play and carried off the field by stretcher.

Dawkins, with 106 yards gained for a 6.4 average and Anderson with 145 yards for a 6.0 average were the "big guns." Claude Mason gained 130 yards, including his run, for a 26.0 average—quite a day for "Boo"!

Louisiana State, sparked by their brilliant fullback, Jimmy Taylor, trounced Tulane 25 to 6.

Taylor saved his greatest day for this traditional grid battle. He carried the ball 19 times for 171 yards and scored two touchdowns.

The Tigers had the Wave in the hole for the first half and it wasn't until the fourth quarter when Carleton Sweeney opened up a passing attack that Tulane was able to score. He passed to Gene Newton for 21 yards. He hit Leo Young and then Will Billon. On the fourth down Sweeney connected with Newton in the end zone for a 19 yard TD pass.

The difference between the two teams is shown in the statistics. LSU made 18 first downs to 10 for the Greenies. The Tigers gained 325 yards rushing to 97 for the Wave. However, Tulane outgained LSU in the air with 12 completions out of 21 attempts for 157 yards.

TULANE 14 • ARMY 20

Could be a Tulane bandit.

TULANE 6 • L. S. U. 25

Taylor scored early in the first quarter on a 48 yard buck off left tackle. That concluded scoring until after halftime.

Duane Leopard intercepted a Petitbon pass in the third quarter and scampered 43 yards for the TD. Late in the period Warren Raab passed to Billy Smith but he fumbled the ball after making the catch. However, Johnny Robinson fell on the loose pigskin behind the Tulane goal line for the touchdown.

The last Tiger score came in the final quarter on a spectacular 32-yard run by Taylor.

The Tigers' offense was just too much for the Greenies. The Wave defense did well in stopping many thrusts but the offense could not generate enough steam to bulldoze through the Tigers' stone wall.

"Full speed ahead!"

SEC COACH OF THE YEAR

Though this past season did not produce Andy Pilney's best won-lost record, it was a season in which the Greenie mentor received much personal satisfaction. It was the general opinion among most Southeastern scribes and coaches that Andy had done an exceptional job with far from the best gridiron material. Thus, the honor of SEC Coach of the Year was awarded the Tulane Head Coach. Pilney proved that this selection was no fluke, as he coached the Grey squad to a breath-taking victory over the Blue team in the annual Blue-Grey game.

Pilney attended high school in Chicago and was an all-state selection as halfback for two years. Andy played his college football at Notre Dame, making the All-American team of 1935. Professional baseball claimed Pilney's next five years. He saw action with Syracuse, Indianapolis, and the Red Sox of Boston.

The Greenie coach got his big chance with Washington University of St. Louis as Backfield Coach. After two years Pilney went into the Navy and coached the Norfolk Naval Station Baseball team until 1946, which proved to be one of the luckiest years for Tulane football as Andy began his tenure with the Wave.

According to the headman, Eddie Price, Bill Svobda, Joe Ernst, Paul Lee, Ron Quillian and Gene Newton are among the best he has coached.

Tulane is indeed fortunate to have as head coach not only one of the finest coaches in the national, but a fine gentleman, truly a leader of men. We of the JAMBALAYA doff our Ivy League caps to Andy Pilney and wish continued success to him and to future Tulane Football.

ALL SOPHOMORE BACK • SEC

Through outstanding play as a sophomore, Richie Petibon was honored with a slat on the all-SEC Sophomore team. The Greenie quarterback scored three touchdowns, passed for two others, and accounted for 300 total yards. Petibon shared the punting chores with Newton, and averaged 23 yards on kick-off runbacks. Richie will undoubtedly be a decisive factor in the success of the '58-'59 Wave football seasons.

For the first time in many years the Greenie Frosh completed an undefeated season. Pilney feels that the entire freshman team are good prospects and all spots are open for next year.

BASKETBALL

The '57-'58 season was a disastrous one for Cliff Wells' Greenies. Not only did the Wave fail to finish in the upper half of the conference, but they also failed to win any road games. Tulane's poor showing was attributed to many factors. First, the Wave quintet lacked height. Second, they lacked experience. Sophomores were forced to carry a big load. Finally, the Greenie offensive was broken when their high point man, Vic Klinker was injured and unable to play in the last quarter of the Tulane's contests.

considering the inexperience of the team. Most of the squad consisted of Sophomores and Juniors who lacked the experience of many conference teams.

The Wave nine opened the season like conference champs, winning ten of their first 12 games. At mid-season they were rocking along in first place—then the bottom fell out. Ole Miss dropped the Greenies twice, 'Bama won three straight, and LSU rubbed salt into the wound, taking two games. The Wave salvaged the season's finale and wound up with an over-all 11-9 record.

Besides the heavy hitting of Tony Reginelli and Joe Boullosa (his .307 average led the team), the highlight of the season was furnished by the Wave mound corps. DuFour, Marks, Regan, Trenchard, Wilcox and Ebker teamed up for a 2.51 earned run average, best in the conference.

Tony Reginelli, All SEC Catcher

Tony Reginelli, at left, Tulane's candidate for all SEC honors, compiled quite a record for himself during the season. Besides hitting a very respectable .298, Tony led the team in round-trippers with 4, RBI's with 19, and accounted for 34 total bases. Reginelli received several offers to play professional ball, and finally chose to render his mask and mitt services to the Boston Red Sox.

Jules LaCoste, shown at bottom left, was one of the flashiest glovemen in the conference last season and was the spark plug of the Wave infield. While holding down second base, Jules managed to lead the Greenies in two-baggers and had a hand in more double plays than any man in the Conference. LaCoste, along with Reginelli, joined the Red Sox organization.

Coach Ben Abadie had himself quite a season in 1957 Tulane is very fortunate to have the brilliant former major leaguer, Mel Parnell, as new head baseball coach. Mel, who looks like he is in condition for another twenty game season, pitched ten years for the Boston Red Sox and compiled a 125-77 record.

Mel, a stylish southpaw, came to the Red Sox from Louisville, in 1947. His blazing fast ball and excellent curve made him one of the best pitchers in the league. In 1949 he led the league in five departments including percentage 25-7. Mel participated in three All-Star games and pitched four innings. He received his biggest thrill in baseball in 1956 when he engraved his name in the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, when he pitched a no hitter against the Chicago White Sox.

Mel feels that the toughest hitters he has ever faced are in two categories, the most dangerous hitter being Joe Di-Maggio and the best hitters being George Kell and Lou Boudreau. Mel was forced out of the majors because of elbow trouble.

Mel predicts a much improved Greenie nine this year. He has the boys working very hard. Tulane baseball will certainly take a turn for the best with a coach of the caliber of Mel Parnell.

EMMETT PARE
Tennis Coach

Few Tulanians were surprised when the '58 Tennis Team turned in a successful season. They had little reason to be, for it has been happening consistently since 1934, the year that Emmett Pare began his tenure as Greenie Tennis Coach.

Over the years Pare has helped build many champions, and last year was certainly no exception. Heading the list of stars was Ron Holmberg, a member of the Davis Cup Team and the Fifth ranked amateur in the nation. Crawford Henry, a multi-title holder, was lost for the season due to illness. Filling in for Henry were Carl Goodman, Louisiana Junior Champion and Lester "Bubby" Sack, Mississippi Valley Singles Champion.

Phillip Petra, Elliot Bell, and Austin Robinson claim much silver, won at various tournaments around the nation.

Judging from past performances, Tulane's tennis future is bright, to say the least, as long as Mr. Pare is around.

Ron Holmberg has made quite a reputation for himself in the world of tennis. Ron, Tulane's No. 1 man, has held many intercollegiate and national titles. But in the opinion of most people, Holmberg received his biggest honor and the thrill of a life time, when he was named to the United States Davis Cup Team. Davis Cup members are regarded as the top amateur netters in the country. At the beginning of the season, only four amateurs in the United States were ranked ahead of Tulane's Holmberg.

This year's golf team was one of the strongest in many seasons. Seven lettermen returned to the links, including Captain Eddie Lee Weitz, Jack Drucker, Tom Wittenberg, Don Marcus, Maury Klumor, John Jackson and Dub DiGigila. Several other par chasers joined the squad to give Coach Miller more depth and power than he has had in many years.

INTRAMURALS

This year's intramural program, under the guidance of Ben Abadie, proved very successful. Over 1,000 students, representing 34 different organizations, participated in 10 different sports varying from football to ping pong. The purpose of the program is to provide an opportunity for those who don't play varsity sports to participate in athletic competition.

The big news in the intramural program this year was the opening of the new field house in back of the stadium. The fieldhouse which was devoted primarily for intramural use, includes facilities for tennis, basketball, handball, volleyball, and gymnastics. These new facilities greatly increased activity and participation of students in Tulane's IM program.

The governing body of the intramural program is the IM Council. It formulates the rules and regulations of the various

The organization capturing the top place in any IM sport is given a trophy, and special awards are given to teams finishing high in competition for the year.

WOMEN'S SPORTS

Golf, tennis, swimming, ballet, archery, and many other interesting and useful courses are offered by the Newcomb Athletic Department. Each member of the staff is an expert in her own field and only the most modern methods and equipment are used. Each student is required to take at least two years of Physical Education, thus enabling her to take advantage of this beneficial program.

The Newcomb Athletic Council is the governing body of the department and supervises all Pan-Hellenic sports events, which include basketball, baseball, tennis, ping-pong, and swimming. Every Newcomb student is a member of the council and the officers are elected annually by the student body. This year's officers are: President, Katherine Pittman; Vice-President, Janet Boisfontaine; Secretary, Pat Meller; Treasurer, Bee Pollock, and Points Chairman, Frances Graham.

THE PAN HELLENIC CREED

Adopted by N.P.C. in 1915

WE, THE FRATERNITY UNDERGRADUATE MEMBERS stand for good scholarship, for guarding of good health, for wholehearted cooperation with our college's ideals for student life for maintenance of fine social standards, and for the serving to the best of our ability, of our college community. Good college citizenship as a preparation for the larger world of alumnae days is the ideal that shall guide our chapter activities.

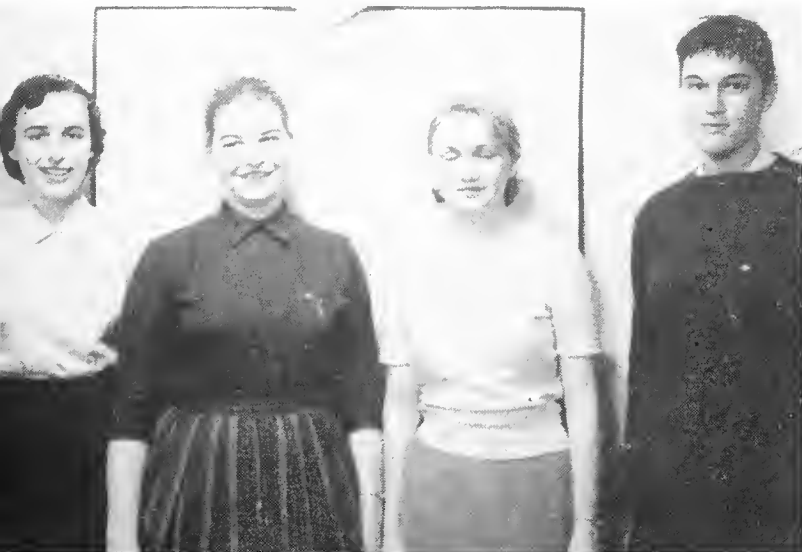

Council sponsors the following activities which lead to the accomplishment of the above goals:

- Scholarship Banquet
- City Pan-Hellenic's Scholarship Tray
- Faculty Tea
- Skit Night
- Homecoming Decoration
- Campus Carnival Competition
- Pan-Hellenic Sports
- Rush Week

Pan-Hellenic Trophy is presented to the Sorority which accumulates the most points each year. The accumulation of these points is a fairly good barometer indicating the sororities which best achieve the goals for which we strive.

Founded at Wesleyan College, Macon, Georgia, in 1851, Alpha Delta Pi is the oldest social society in existence. Newcomb's Epsilon chapter is proud to be a part of this wonderful heritage.

This summer, our president, Diane Radke, attended the ADPi convention in Nassau, where the ninety chapters met to exchange ideas. We are looking forward to our next convention, which will be held at the Chateau Frontenac in Quebec, Canada.

ADPi started off a busy and successful year with rush, which was climaxed with a swimming party given in honor of our new pledges. As is customary, the pledges entertained the actives with a Halloween Party, and a tea honoring the Mother's Club and the Alumni Association was held in the fall. A retreat, boat dance, Christmas party, luncheons at the house, parties with fraternities, and the most anticipated function of the year, the annual Spring Formal, were some of Epsilon's activities for the year. ADPi members have also been active in campus activities and competitions.

Alpha Epsilon Phi was founded at Barnard College in 1909. Epsilon chapter was founded at Newcomb in 1916. Today $\Delta E \Phi$ has 41 chapters and over 15,000 members, of which Epsilon can claim 81 members.

The 1957-58 year started with a bang with our tremendously successful rush week. Following in quick succession were such gala events as our Founders' Day Banquet, semi-formal dinner and dance, dessert parties, and open houses. The spring semester was climaxed by such events as Skit Night, the $\Delta E \Phi$ formal, and the Senior Banquet presented by our pledges.

Since all play and no work is just wishful thinking, $\Delta E \Phi$'s were busy working at Kingsley House for children in addition to being active in campus activities. The Newcomb Junior Year Abroad Program has enabled two Phi's to extend Epsilon activities as far as London, England. Campus-wise, one finds that $\Delta E \Phi$ holding such positions as President of Newcomb Student Body, representative of Tulane Student Council, members of the house council, members of Alpha Sigma Sigma and Assets, Who's Who, ROTC Sponsors, Urchin Beauty Court, JAMBALAYA Beauty Court, cheerleaders, and officers and members in the various clubs and organizations.

Alpha Omicron Pi was founded at Barnard College on January 2, 1897. Pi Chapter, established at Newcomb in 1898, is the oldest AOPi chapter today and one of the two oldest sororities on the Newcomb campus.

Our biennial convention was held this past summer at the Edgewater Beach Hotel in Chicago. Pi Chapter was the proud recipient of the Achievement Cup.

The annual pre-rush houseparty, this year in Houston, preceded a highly successful rush week which resulted in the pledging of twenty-six girls.

We are especially proud of Jean Wiggins, who was elected queen of the 1957 Homecoming Court, and Claudette Webster, one of Jean's maids. Kay Hecker was elected an Army ROTC sponsor.

The AOPi's have been active in all campus activities. Joan Barkerding, president of Alpha Sigma Sigma, and Gwen Munch were co-chairmen of Orientation. Justine Bernard was vice-chairman. We are also proud of Beverly Sanderfer, president of Tri-Beta, and Sandy DeArmas, president of the Art Club. Other AOPi's are in Assets, Tusk, Greenbackers, Who's Who, the Student Council, TUT, A Capella Choir, and University Chorus.

Our chapter sponsored many social functions this year. Among our activities were the pledge picnic, the annual Phi Beta Kappa luncheon, the Mother-Father-Daughter Tea, many formal and informal gatherings, all climaxed by our March formal.

Beta Sigma Omicron was founded in 1888 at Columbia, Missouri. Alpha Sigma chapter has been a vital part of Greek activities on Newcomb's campus since 1927. Our flower is the Killarney rose; our colors, ruby and pink.

The top-notch pledge class—that brought us girls from as far away as Idaho and as near as New Orleans—has been very busy showing off our lovely new Broadway apartment and polishing our many trophies.

Recognizing the importance of scholastic accomplishments, Beta Sigs are very proud of the fact that this chapter has been awarded the City Pan-Hellenic Scholarship trophy for the second year in a row.

The social whirl this year has featured a fall weiner roast, a Homecoming party, the annual pledge-active Christmas party, the Senior Banquet, the Mother's Day, tea. These activities were climaxed by our very lovely black and silver Celestial Ball, our annual spring formal. 'Twas the talk of the campus.

The chapter fostered its ideals of charity and brotherhood this year with Thanksgiving baskets and Easter parties for a children's ward.

Beta Sigs are active in many religious and campus activities. The chapter is represented in Who's Who, Kappa Delta Pi, Tri Beta, Theta Nu, signifying our interest in becoming an integral part of Tulane and Newcomb. Amidst all the work, and all the play—and there was plenty of both this busy year—can be found the trait that binds this group together—friendship.

Despite the endless chatter, even time for study can be found at the sorority house . . .

Founded at the University of Arkansas in 1895, Chi Omega now has 119 chapters throughout the United States. Rho Chapter was founded at Newcomb in 1900. This year it is the proud possessor of the Pan-Hellenic Cup which was awarded last May.

Together with serious work was a year marked with serious play. The Chi Omegas began the year with a houseparty at the Buena Vista. The year was highlighted by a wonderful pledge class, a dinner dance in November, and the Founder's Day Banquet in the Spring. The Formal was a huge success, with Papa Celestine playing. Lunches at the house, supper meetings, working at the Cripple Children's Hospital, sending boxes to our Greek orphan, and working on Campus Carnival, etc., kept the chapter very busy.

Among the honors bestowed upon Chi Omegas were ROTC Sponsor, Homecoming Court, Who's Who, Urchin Beauty, Student Body Corresponding Secretary, House Council President, Representatives to the Tulane Student Council, President of the Senior and Junior classes, President of the Art School, and officers of various other organizations.

Beta Upsilon has had another busy year keeping up the high standards of achievement which have enabled Delta Zeta to grow into one of the largest national sororities since its founding in 1902. Her ideals of sisterhood were maintained through varied activities beginning with a rush party on the Gulf Coast which bound the sorority into a unit through hard work and good times. Throughout the year, weekly meetings followed by informal dinners during which pledges and actives got together and chatted, supplemented other activities. Highlights of the year included the Founders' Day Banquet which emphasized Delta Zeta's philanthropic work, a Christmas party for deaf children which became a tradition with Beta Upsilon, the annual Spring Formal which was a fitting climax to an outstanding year.

Beta Upsilon is proud of two of her girls, Mary Winfield and Michele Bailliet who are spending their junior year abroad. Michele has brought another honor to her sorority by being chosen Miss France in America. This year Beta Upsilon can say that they have had a very successful year both at home and abroad.

Kappa Alpha Theta, the first national Greek fraternity for women, was founded at DePauw University on January 27, 1870. Our chapter, Alpha Phi, was established at Newcomb in 1914 and has been prominent on campus ever since.

We Thetas kept quite busy this year. We climaxed a highly successful rush season, in which we pledged twenty-seven girls, with a Kidnap Breakfast for them. Although our social calendar was filled with teas, luncheons, and cocktail parties given for us by other sororities and fraternities, we still found time to participate in Skit Night and Pan-Hellenic sports as well as work on Homecoming decorations, for which we won first place.

Among our other activities were such things as our annual Orphans' Christmas party, volunteer work at the Crippled Children's Hospital, re-decorating our garage apartment as a study and play-room and the pledges' Shipwreck Party for the actives. Everyone agreed, however, that the high point of the year was our Spring Formal at the Century Room.

Looking back, Alpha Phi had a wonderful year, winning recognition, not only as a group, but as individuals, both here and in France, Germany, and England. In the future, we plan to climb to even greater heights of accomplishment and service.

Kappa Kappa Gamma was founded at Monmouth College, Monmouth, Illinois, in 1870. Beta Omicron, our chapter, has held an integral place on the Newcomb campus since 1904. Our colors are light and dark blue; our flower is the fleur-de-lis.

Rush week, preceded by our annual pre-rush houseparty, resulted in the pledging of twenty-six wonderful girls who hailed from California to Georgia. They have added much spirit and gaiety to our chapter. A swimming party the night of the pledging, the pledge banquet at the St. Charles, a seafood party at Fitzgerald's, and the monthly pledge-active suppers, have helped to make them feel a part of our chapter. Our December houseparty, provided a weekend of fun, relaxation, and close associations between the pledges and actives.

In September, we moved into our new house which we all love and of which we are so proud. Our playroom with the Hi-Fi has given us many moments of pleasure. The pledges entertained at an informal party for the pledges of the other sororities, the actives and pledges were hostesses at a faculty coffee this spring, and the mothers prepared lunch each Tuesday for the Kappas and their friends at the house.

Important dates remaining on this year's Kappa Kalendar include our annual formal, the Founder's Day banquet, a steak and bean scholarship dinner, and, of course, active participation in all phases of campus life.

Founded in 1852 at Wesleyan College at Macon, Georgia, Phi Mu has spread to 77 campuses throughout the U.S.A. The sorority's flower is the Enchantress carnation and the colors are rose and white.

Delta chapter, the oldest existing collegiate chapter of the national, was founded at Newcomb in 1906.

Rush week, which resulted in a great pledge class, was followed by pledging and the annual pledge banquet at the Vieux Carré Restaurant. Then there were the parties with fraternities, parties for fraternities, suppers with dates, luncheon with dates, and pledge-active parties.

A party remembered by all was the Christmas party which the pledges planned for the sorority. A skit was given by the pledge class and amusing gifts were exchanged.

Initiation was followed by the social highlight of the school year, the annual formal at the Monteleone Hotel.

Picnics and swimming parties in the spring ended another successful year for Delta of Phi Mu.

Pi Beta Phi was founded in 1367 at Monmouth College, Monmouth, Illinois. In 1891 Louisiana Alpha was established on the Newcomb campus. The flower is the wine carnation, and the colors are wine and silver blue.

Our annual pre-rush house party on the Gulf Coast started off our Pi Phi school year with worlds of fun. A very successful Rush Week followed. We were very proud of our 26 new pledges and honored them in an annual banquet at Arnaud's and at a pledge-active picnic in true "country style." The year was highlighted by the Faculty Tea, Founder's Day Banquet, Alumnae Christmas Party and was climaxed by the formal in April with Papa Celestine's band. The chapter is particularly excited over our remodeling plans. The house will soon have a "face lifting."

The Pi Phis have been active and outstanding in all campus activities. We are specially proud of Pat Cousins who has received many campus honors, Jackie Jones has been chosen as finalist in the national Maid of Cotton contest. Other elected beauties are Carl Ann Moore and Virginia Jones, JAMBALAYA Court; Linda Hardy and Judy Becker, pledge court. Kay Ketelson participated in the homecoming court. Other honors included Air Force ROTC sponsor Becky Fuqua and our "Who's Who" contributions—Ruth Knighton and Ruth Harper Watson.

Besides social and campus events, though, the Pi Phis have given their time and energy in orphan work.

Alpha Iota Chapter of Sigma Delta Tau, the newest sorority on the Newcomb Campus, was established here in May of 1955. First founded at Cornell University in 1917, today all of the 29 active chapters proudly uphold the traditional torch, golden tea rose, and colors of cafe-au-lait and blue.

The 1957-1958 administration began with the annual formal, and the spring semester was successfully and appropriately climaxed with a final brunch, where the first publication of the chapter was presented to an applauding audience.

To begin the fall semester, the new pledges, having received their pledge pins at an impressive ceremony followed by a luncheon in their honor, proceeded to take an enthusiastic part in both the functions of the active chapter and those of their own pledge class. Highlights included an open house presenting the pledges to "Tulane," a bean-steak dinner to stimulate scholastic improvement, a dated ranch party complete with dinner, dancing, horseback riding, and a campfire, numerous philanthropic activities, and a retreat which included both fun and stimulating discussions.

The chapter is also extremely proud of its representation in nearly every group on campus, both honorary and non-honorary, and of its girls who have been elected to serve in honorary capacities by clubs, military groups, and social fraternities. Thus the sorority is not only living up to its aims and ideals by playing a great role in the college days of its members, but also by successfully establishing itself on the Tulane-Newcomb campus.

The Tulane Pan-Hellenic Council is the governing body for the social fraternities on the campus, and is composed of two representatives from each of the member fraternities. Each year the Council supervises a diversified program of inter-fraternity competition and awards a permanent trophy to the winner in each event. At the end of the school year the fraternity which has amassed the most points in this competition is awarded the Pan-Hellenic Trophy, symbol of over-all fraternity excellence. Events which are found in the yearly schedule are touch football, basketball, track, bridge, golf, handball, tennis, softball, howling, ping pong, songfest, swimming, volleyball, pool, Homecoming decorations and scholarship.

In September the council was host to a welcoming banquet for all fraternity pledges, and shortly before initiation week the Council sponsored its annual "Greek Week" which consisted of a series of discussions among chapter officers and pledges and a convocation for all fraternity men. An outstanding feature of each "Greek Week" is the "Community Help Day" on which the fraternity pledges work on various charity projects throughout the city. The climax of the week was the Pan-Hellenic Formal Dance.

The past year has seen the young Tau Upsilon chapter of Alpha Epsilon Pi make the greatest strides in its relatively short history. Founded on the national scene in 1913 at N.Y.U., Alpha Epsilon Pi has seen its local chapter rapidly take its place among the promising chapters since its local inception in 1951.

Outstanding achievement of the year was the award of the Pan-Hellenic Scholarship Trophy. Not only in scholarship, but also in athletics has Tau Upsilon participated wholeheartedly in Pan-Hellenic activities.

AEPi members have been extremely active the past two semesters on campus and can list on its membership rolls Mike Parver, associate editor of the Hullabaloo and director of Campus Night; Mike Rose, vice-president of Campus Night; Donald Gilner, president of the Pre-

Medical Society and Lenny Mattes, editor of that group's Journal.

Other active men on campus are Sammy Magids, a member of the Intramural Council and the Outstanding Business School Freshman of 1956-57; Greenbackers Sidney Eisenbaum, Donald Gilner and Magids; and Tusk representatives Mike Rose, Howie Garber, Ira Leichter, Joel Ruskin and Bob Friedman. The list of ROTC officers includes another AEPi member, Jac King.

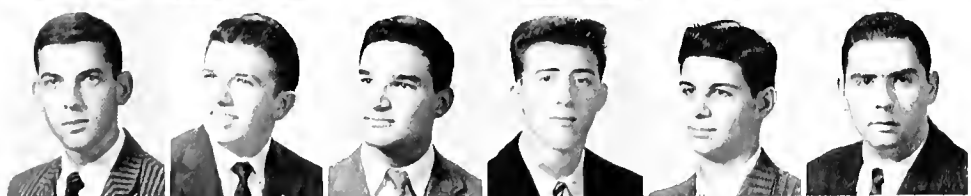

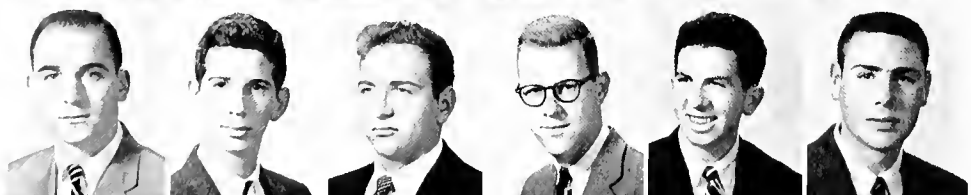

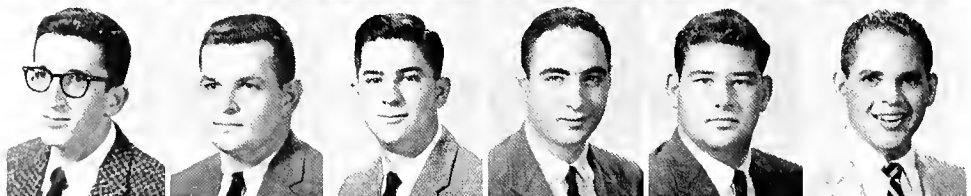

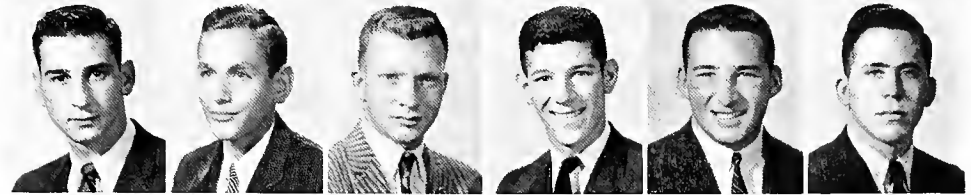

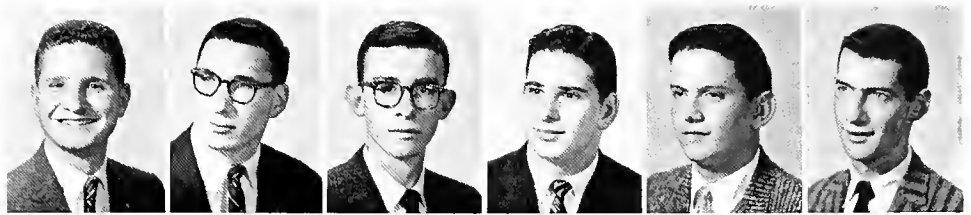

Tau Upsilon this past year has also enjoyed a very successful social season, having staged several outstanding parties, in addition to its gala annual Formal Weekend. Also, the very spirited pledge class helped to make the various activities of the fraternity more successful.

The blazing New Orleans summer heat will no longer bother Tau Upsilon, for it now enjoys, among several house improvements, air-conditioning of the downstairs of the fraternity house.

All of these successes have instilled in the Tau Upsilon chapter of Alpha Epsilon Pi the desire to strive toward new heights in the coming years at Tulane.

Alpha Tau Omega was the first fraternity founded after the Civil War. Louisiana Beta Epsilon chapter was established at Tulane in 1887. The national fraternity now has over 70,000 members, and has chapters at 117 universities and colleges in the United States and Canada.

Even before the year started, the Taus had something to cheer about. Their scholastic efforts of 1956-57 earned them the Pan-Hellenic trophy for scholarship improvement. The chapter rose from 12% below the all-men's average to 8% above it, a gain which is one of the best nationally.

Seventeen pledges were added after a successful Rush Week. The outstanding rush party was the Alumni Banquet, which was followed by a dance at the Southern Yacht Club.

Thanksgiving found the Taus traveling to Baton Rouge by school bus for the touch football match between the two chapters, as well as for the Tiger-Green Wave encounter.

The Sunday before the holidays the ATO's had their annual Christmas party, with toys for five orphans, and miscellaneous gifts for dates. Santa's little helper, Timau Claverie, was much in evidence.

As is the custom, ATO ended each semester with a blast. The Sweetheart Formal at the Century Room ended the first semester, and the Beachcomber Ball broke the tension of final exams second semester.

Al Keller and Tom Randolph again were on the Student Council from Engineering, as was Bill Andrews from Business. Andrews and Robert White were elected to Sabbar and Blade. Jim Schupp was elected President of the Freshman Law class.

Dr. Hans Jonassen, professor of chemistry, continued as the chapter adviser, and Mrs. Emily Knight, dean of Tulane's housemothers, completed her sixteenth year in that capacity at the ATO house.

Beta Theta Pi was founded at Miami University in 1839, and Beta Xi Chapter has been at Tulane since 1908.

As in past years, Beta has been quite active in Pan-Hellenic competition, taking first place in swimming, and placing in track and softball.

On the lighter side, this year the chapter's many social activities were highlighted by informal gatherings, the Coondog and Jungle Parties, and, of course, the traditional Blue and White Formal.

Outstanding among the many Betas in campus activities is Bill Dyer, President of Lagniappes; Greenbacker, Who's Who, and Vice-President of the Pan-Hellenic Council. Norman Palermo is a Navy ROTC Battalion Officer, and member of Scabbard and Blade, along with Bill Dyer, Foster Fournier, John Dickinson, and Jon Roth. Doug Bond is Vice-President of Junior A&S, and Prent Seymour is presiding officer of the sophomore Architects. Several other brothers were elected to Phi Eta Sigma.

With the aid of another outstanding pledge class, Beta again completed another year of leadership on the Tulane campus.

The Tau Lambda Dekes celebrated their 60th year on the Tulane campus with their usual achievement, activity, and good parties.

Allain Andry was chosen for the Tulane Law Review. Jimmy Gundlach was a member of Tau Beta Pi, Scabbard and Blade, and also headed the Air Force ROTC. Bill Kearney and Jack Calhoun were also members of Scabbard and Blade. Fritz Dahlberg was a distinguished military student and also played on the Tulane golf team. Jimmy Legendre and John Arms were members of the Tulane football team and Pat McKenna played on the varsity tennis team.

Last year DKE also did very well in Pan-Hellenic sports, winning basketball and tennis, and placing second in football.

This year after having pledged a fine group of freshmen, we enjoyed those traditional DEKE "blasts," namely the Kickapoo Blast, Pledge Party, and last but not least the famed Debutramps Party, which put a fitting climax to the end of this gala season in New Orleans.

Delta Sig bounced right into the swing of things on the old T. U. campus. Rush week results showed them with 30 pledges. After the week silence period was over, they pledged four more men and then had the largest pledge class on the campus.

In Pan-Hellenic football competition Billy Murphy quarterbacked the team to a fourth place finish. The Delta Sig team defeated Pike, Deke, ATO, and lost to SAE and KA. Other Pan-Hel competition found the artists of the house conjuring up a Sputnik theme for the Georgia Tech game that won third place in the homecoming decorations.

Delta Sig representatives on campus include Terry Brown, Vice-President of the senior law class; Mike Georgeou, Vice-President of the freshman law class; Douglas Greve, member of the student council and nominee for Who's Who; Dick Arsenault, member of the publications board; Frank Basile and Vincent Stewart, versatile members of the Glendy Burke society; and George Fee, Editor of the student directory and business manager of the Carnival magazine. The Beta Xi Chapter of Delta Tau Delta was formed at Tulane in 1889.

The biggest accomplishment this year was the acquiring of a new Delta Shelter at 335 Broadway. The purchasing of new furniture was made possible through the tireless efforts of the wonderful alumni. The Mothers' Club did a fine job of interior decorating. In addition to the new house, the Delts were very fortunate to have Mrs. Guy Sherrill as their housemother.

The parties given at the Delta Shelter have been wide and varied. There is still much talk about the Playboy Party. This year the tradition of having a Thanksgiving Banquet was revived. The new pledge class got off to a fine start by entertaining sorority pledges at some magnificent champagne parties. Santa Claus paid a visit to the Shelter at the Christmas Party, one which will never be forgotten.

Highlighting the social calendar was the Rainbow Ball.

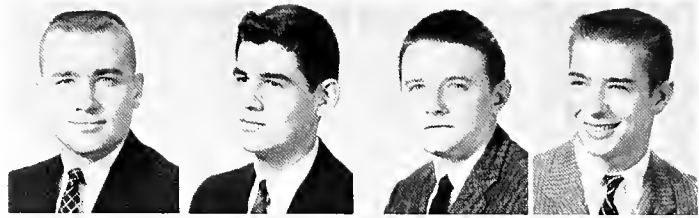

For the first time in many a year, Beta Xi presented a Delt Queen along with a court. The affair was climaxed with the awarding of the annual fraternity trophies.

The Delts are indebted to the National Fraternity and the new pledge class for a successful year. After achieving many new things this year, Delta Tau Delta's step into the future will be one of expansion.

There is no legend like the legend of the Confederacy. The defeated rebels marched straight into a legend that will live as long as the American people care to remember anything about the American past. Upon this tradition Kappa Alpha Order was founded at Washington and Lee in 1865. Psi chapter was established at Tulane in 1885 and since that time it has prided itself with an outstanding group of young men.

In true southern style the KA's have enjoyed the magical powers of the mint julep constantly throughout the year. Many parties from small and intense to large and intense, were climaxed by our unforgettable "Old South Ball." Inspired by the great plantation beverage we managed to accomplish a meritorious Pan-Hellenic record.

Without a doubt the most fortunate addition to the chapter aside from our fine pledge class has been our new housemother, Mrs. "Red" Duvall. Under her able guidance the house and kitchen have been completely transformed.

The KA's hope and see every reason to expect that Psi Chapter will continue adding merit to Kappa Alpha Order and Tulane University.

Kappa Sigma came into being at the University of Virginia in 1869. Sigma Chapter was established on the Tulane campus twenty years later and since then the Crescent and Star have inspired the brothers to outstanding achievements in all fields of campus activity.

The Kappa Sigs claim Vice-President of the Student Body, JAMBALAYA Editor, Arts and Sciences President, Glendy Burke President; President and Vice-President of Tusk, President of A&S sophomore class, treasurer of engineering sophs, and two cheerleaders.

Following in the same tradition the pledges include President and Vice-President of the Engineering Frosh and President of the Freshman Class of Business Administration.

The "wheels" had many occasions to roll during the year. Following the inferno blast during rush week, the Kappa Sigs celebrated Christmas in great style with a party that rocked the foundations of 642 Broadway.

Between parties the K-Sigs managed to walk off with the Songfest trophy for the second consecutive year.

Second semester followed and the year, a great one for Kappa Sig, came to an end with the pledge formal and the unforgettable Pirate Party.

Phi Delta Theta was founded at Miami of Ohio, and came into existence at Tulane in 1839. Since then, many wearers of the sword and shield have made it prominent locally through their achievements, activities, and social events.

The season for the Phi Delts opened with a round of beer parties during rush week, followed by numerous Saturday night blasts to which the neighborhood can truly attest. Then came the annual Barn Dance at Johnson's Farm.

Santa Claus visited the Phis at their Christmas Party and his presents made the "little girls" very happy. The Winter Formal was held at the Century Room of the Monteleone, and finally the chapter reigned supreme over the campus as the South Sea Island Party took place. It never seems to end for some of the boys.

President of the chapter and his officers have done a magnificent job in handling our affairs. The effort of Rush Chairman Don Ranna were also outstanding.

Louisiana Alpha has also done very well in Pan-Hellenic competition as illustrated by the "Fighting Phi" football team.

Eta of PiKA was established at this University in 1878, some ten years after the fraternity was founded at the University of Virginia. Since then there has been a long succession of honors and projects for the chapter.

This year Rush Week resulted in sixteen pledges and a few assorted kegs and cases of beer. The pledges, together with all other good men who joined their class were received, for the most part, into the active brotherhood. As a matter of fact so were the assorted kegs and cases.

This year the Pike Kitchen was formally put into operation, much to the satisfaction of all concerned, insuring the members of at least a loaf of bread and a jug of wine.

On the social side, the Pikes resumed their activities with accustomed zest. The year got off to a start with the traditional "Cabinet of Dr. Cagliostro Party." Some of those which followed were the annual Bohemian Ball, Literary Party, Suppressed Desire Masque, and the Hayride. Their formal, biggest social highlight of the year, was held at the New Orleans Country Club.

As a local newspaper put it "The Pikes wormed their way to victory" in the Pep Rally preceding the TU-Georgia game, by constructing the forty-foot worm captioned "Georgia Can't Worm Out of This One," and winning the TUSK cup for spirit.

At the Interfraternity Pledge Banquet in September, the Pan-Hellenic trophy for outstanding interfraternity competition was awarded to the SAE chapter for the fourth consecutive year. Other inspiring events of the year were the complete remodeling of the dormitory floor of the fraternity house and the designing and building of a brick patio by the thirty member of the pledge class.

The social calendar for the year was highlighted by such events as the Suppressed Desire Party, the Spring and Winter Formals, and the Orphans' Parties at Christmas and Easter. Special mention should be given to the Undertakers' Ball—a mystifying event of rare occurrence.

Some of the highlights of pledgship included assistance to Lafon's Home for the Aged, in construction of a combination church-home building, the annual Christmas party for underprivileged children, and active participation in the Marlboro campaign, obtaining a Hi-Fi set to complete the recreational facilities of the house.

The Sammies' social calendar was filled with many well-planned blasts, highlighted by the Winter Formal. This year a new criterion was emphasized, that of fostering better relations between fraternities and sororities on campus. This was exemplified by the Champagne Party for the pledges of AEPHI and SDT sororities and the "Annual Swollen Ball" for the pledges of all fraternities on campus.

The Sigma Chi Fraternity was founded on June 28, 1855, at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio. Alpha Omicron of Sigma Chi was founded on the Tulane campus on May 20, 1886. Since that time we have always been active in campus affairs, such as intramural sports, fraternity songfest, and all the various spirit, religious, and vocational organizations.

We added our own contributions to campus activities this year as in the past with such activities as the Sigma Chi Derby Day and the "Sweetheart Dance." Derby Day is the Sigma Chi competition among sororities with such events as sack races, egg tosses, etc. The sororities which place in this event receive points toward the Pan-Hellenic trophy for sororities. It is at the Sweetheart Dance that the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi is named.

Among other activities this year were the "Black and White Party," the sorority teas, the parties after the football games, the annual orphans' party, our Christmas party, and our house party on the Gulf Coast. When we could, we traveled as a group to out-of-town football games, where we enjoyed many good times with Sigs from other chapters. Not to be forgotten was the "blast" the pledges had in late fall.

With the help of Mrs. T. J. Fontelieu, our housemother (better known as "Miz F."), we made the Sig house a very comfortable home away from home. With the willing aid of the pledges all our house activities were very successful.

We're looking ahead to another great year next year, with all the old favorite and traditional activities and many new ones. We'll be out to further improve our scholastic standing and make the next year even more successful than this last one.

On December 9, 1956, the Tau Epsilon colony of Tau Epsilon Phi fraternity was founded on the Tulane campus. The group was soon officially recognized by the Tulane Pan-Hellenic Council as Tau Epsilon local fraternity. Upon recognition, the boys began work in earnest. Most important were the jobs of organization, the framing of a constitution, and the business of enlarging their membership. Under the leadership of Mark Haiken, Tau Epsilon's first chancellor, and with the great help of the Tau Epsilon Phi alumni in New Orleans, the group became a closely-knit organization by the close of the 1957 Spring Term.

The founders of Tau Epsilon were not merely satisfied to organize just another Greek-letter fraternity, but were imbued with the idea of establishing a fraternity which embodied FRIENDSHIP, CHIVALRY, and SERVICE, as consistent with the Creed of Tau Epsilon Phi. When the Fall Term began, Tau Epsilon set out to accomplish its aims.

Our rush week, highlighted by a terrific night swimming party, was conducted on the basis of true friendship. When it was over, TE's first pledge class totalled 13 pledges—and more coming. But Tau Epsilon's social life didn't stop with rush week. Many great parties were held during the year, including TE's First Anniversary Party and Pledge Party. The social season was topped off with Tau Epsilon's Sweetheart Formal in February.

Tau Epsilon's future at Tulane looks bright. The fraternity will definitely have a house by September, 1958. On November 1st, 1957, six of the original charter members of the group were initiated into Tau Epsilon Phi after a dinner at Lenfant's. In addition, the colony is looking forward to being chartered as Epsilon Kappa chapter of Tau Epsilon Phi within a few months.

Sigma Chapter of Zeta Beta Tau has once more inscribed in its annals a traditionally successful year, a year remarkable for its achievements in all phases of campus life. A fun-filled, flu-filled rush week was followed by the pledging of an outstanding pledge class. Our social calendar was soon underway, and 1006 Broadway vibrated frequently with lively parties, climaxed by our annual Spring Formal at the Roosevelt Hotel.

The good omen of winning the first Pan-Hellenic event of the year, Homecoming indicated the inevitability of another successful campaign in which other early season first places were gathered in bowling and golf. Community service was not neglected as the chapter actively supported the United Fund and the March of Dimes as well as hosting a Christmas party for an orphanage.

Surpassed by none in campus leadership and activities, ZBT was proud of holding such distinguished offices as Business Managers of the JAMB and Hullabaloo; Vice-president of the A&S student body; Associate Editor of the JAMB; President of Phi Eta Sigma; President of Adelpheans; President of Hillel; Chairman of the A&S Honor Board; President of the Sophomore class of Business School; Vice-President of the A&S Freshman class; Treasurer of Greenbackers; Treasurer of TUSK; Treasurer of the Interfaith Council; several members of ODK, the Tulane Hall of Fame, and the Publications Board; twelve members of Scabbard and Blade; two letterman in tennis; and a varsity letter in golf.

The Alpha Beta Chapter of AKK has really had a very successful year. The fraternity is growing larger every year and the medical and social activities have increased accordingly.

In mid-September our annual Rush Party Banquet was held at the Southern Yacht Club. Dr. Seymour Ochsner was the Master of Ceremonies. About 140 persons attended this function, including many of our distinguished local alumni.

The Rush Party Dance was a great success at the Fraternity House at 4020 St. Charles Avenue. Rush Week activities were culminated by pledging many of the top men in the Freshman Class.

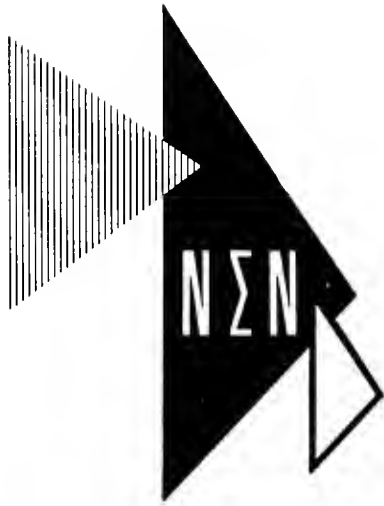

Sunday luncheons have been highlighted by having as our guests Dr. and Mrs. Harold Cummins, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Peeples and Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Bailiff. Many more distinguished members of the medical faculty including many of our alumni are scheduled to be guest speakers during the coming year.

Aspiring young doctors preparing for the future.

Nu Sigma Nu Officers: Roy, Schenken, Schuler, Baker.

N U S I G M A N U

The Nu Sigma Nu Fraternity started the year with our annual rush banquet. Dr. Isadore Dyer was Master of Ceremonies much to the enjoyment of all with Dr. Harold Cummins and Dr. Alton Ochsner adding their personalities to the occasion.

The Rudolph Matas Lectureship featured Dr. Michael E. DeBakey, Professor and Head of Department of Surgery, Baylor University. His subject was cardiovascular surgery.

We deeply regret the loss of our most distinguished alumnus, Dr. Rudolph Matas, who passed away earlier this year.

Other of our outstanding alumni are Dr. Harold Cummins, Head of Tulane Department of Anatomy; Dr. Alton Ochsner, retired Head of Tulane Department of Surgery; Dr. Ralph Platou, Head of Tulane Department of Pediatrics; Dr. Robert Heath, Head of Tulane Department of Psychiatry and Neurology, and Dr. Isadore Dyer, Professor in the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology.

Nu Sigma Nu is one of the nation's first medical fraternities and was founded at the University of Michigan in 1882. The Beta Iota Chapter had its start at Tulane in 1910.

Phi Chi Medical Fraternity was founded at the University of Vermont in 1889. Omicron chapter was established at the Tulane School of Medicine in 1902, being the sixth chapter chartered by the national fraternity. The present chapter house is located on famous St. Charles Avenue and contains the C. Jeff Miller Library of which the chapter is very proud.

In the field of social government, members of Phi Chi have been very active. These include the officers of the medical student body which are Julian Olsen, President; Frank Schmidt, Vice-President; Eron Ingle, Treasurer, and Bob Russell, Secretary; all Phi Chi's. Phi Chi is also represented in the Owl Club by the President, Gene Pope, and members William Stallworth, Dewey Lane, Nick Nichols, Gordon Wolfram, and Luther Fisher.

During the year, Phi Chi has many functions some of which are the monthly dances at the fraternity house, the formal Christmas Dance, the Spring Formal, and the famous South Sea Island Party at which everyone lets down their hair and goes "native." These and many other social functions of the fraternity provide a much needed outlet in the midst of the crowded medical curriculum, while lending at the same time a sense of unity and brotherhood.

PHI DELTA EPSILON

Phi Delta Epsilon, a national medical fraternity, was founded at Cornell in 1904. The Alpha Iota chapter was inaugurated at Tulane in 1918.

In keeping with its policy of promoting intellectual and professional achievement, the chapter sponsored several local lectureships this year. Of these, one of the most enlightening was given by graduate brother, Maurice Pearl, concerning the pathologic physiology of kidney disease.

Socially, the fraternity also had a very successful season. The annual Rush Dinner Dance at the Lakewood Country Club netted eight new pledges. Other equally enjoyable social events this year were the square dance, and the Spring Initiation Formal. Again this year the fraternity put out a hard working basketball team, but no honors were brought home athletic-wise.

Arthur Axelrod was elected to Alpha Omega Alpha, medical honorary society.

Top: Phi Delta Epsilon Officers: Burns, Oelsner, Axelrod, Cohen, Salzman, Shames.

US GIVE OUR ADVERTISERS A LOT OF BULL?

THANK YOU!

As you know, the JAMBALAYA is among the most prized possessions of Tulane students. It is one of the first things a Freshman sees and the last a Senior sees. The Jamb is cherished not only during college days, but also for years to come. It is not just the students who read it, but their friends, parents, relatives, and our prominent alumni as well.

The JAMBALAYA has been published annually since 1896. Our longevity is greatly attributed to the support we receive from our advertisers. We are aware of this, and want to take this opportunity to say thank you.

However, we can show our appreciation best in another manner. Let's PATRONIZE THESE ADVERTISERS. They helped make this book possible. It is our hope that you have enjoyed the Jamb and will show it through our advertisers.

Great Universities do not "Just Happen"

This year the high quality of education at Tulane University has been recognized through acceptance of that institution as a member of the American Association of Universities. Membership in this organization is based on the very highest standards of both teaching and scholarship. Only 41 universities out of several hundred in the nation are capable of meeting its standards.

This is a fine tribute to a great University . . . one of which every Tulane student, alumnus, parent, and friend should feel much pride and satisfaction.

The same factors which have made Tulane a great university constitute a solid framework for success within any field of endeavor.

GERMAINE CAZENAVE WELLS

Owner of Arnaud's Restaurant, daughter of the late Count Arnaud, founder of the restaurant that bears his name, as well as creator of many famous Creole and French dishes famed throughout the world.

ARNAUD'S—Selected the best restaurant of the South for the 2000th anniversary of the founding of the City of Paris.

Few are the people who set foot on the sidewalk of New Orleans who do not seek to learn the location of Arnaud's and forthwith journey there to enjoy this famous cuisine. After partaking of a notable meal, guests frequently ask the derivation of a particular dish: "Is it French?" "Is it Spanish?" The answer is that it is a combination of the wizardry of the French with the art of Spanish to make Arnaud's masterpieces.

Pan-American Life Can Make the Difference . . .

Are you prepared to meet the high cost of a college education for your children? A Pan-American educational plan is the sure way to guarantee them the advantages of college.

College-trained men and women can look forward to nearly $103,000 more lifetime income than their contemporaries who did not attend college. Thoughtful parents realize, too, that the costs of a college education are rising each year—up 70% over 10 years ago.

If you want to make certain your children will have the finer things in life, a Pan-American Life Insurance Company educational plan can make the difference.

A Memorable Year

- Congratulations to the Student Body and Faculty of Tulane University for completion of another outstanding year.

- The Staff of your annual has worked exceedingly hard to give you a superb book that portrays the highlights of memorable activities.

- Neither time, effort nor expense have been spared to provide you with a permanent record, attractively presented and complete in every detail.

- To preserve the photography and literary efforts of the Staff, the best grade of materials have been combined with skilled workmanship to provide the finest quality yearbook.

- We are proud that the 1958 Staff elected us to help design, print and bind the "Jambalaya." We have earnestly endeavored to fulfill the confidence placed in us.
